

Fellow Elks, please remember to thank our advertisers by being a patron of their business. Without them this great newsletter would go unprinted. Also, don't forget our Special Child Program is running out of money, donate to help us keep this program going that has been very influential in what the Elks do in the community.

CHRISTMAS TREE LANE IS A SUCCESS: FUTURE ELK WINS CENTURY 21 TREE

High school student, Tyler Burkel won the Century 21 Discovery "Christmas Tree Lane" tree at the Fullerton Elks Lodge event on December 2, 2012. Tyler won the "Home for the Holidays" tree sponsored by Century 21 Discovery and three Fullerton Elks: Joe Lins, Bert Reitz and Lori Tratthen.

The 42nd annual Fullerton Elks Lodge Christmas Tree Lane was held to raise money for various charities the Elks Lodge supports. Tyler won the Century 21 Discovery "Home for the Holidays" tree that included items for every room of the house. Some of the gifts under his tree were a G&L Guitar, a 39" LCD Flat Screen TV, a Kitchenaid Stand Mixer and 2 Disney Park Hopper Tickets.

"I've been coming to this event for about 10 or 11 years," said Tyler, a sophomore at Apply Valley High School. "My uncle, Jeremy Baltzer, is a Fullerton Elk." Phyllis Fender was there to present Tyler with the G&L Guitar that was included in his gifts under the tree. Mrs. Fender was married to the late Leo Fender of Fender Guitars and G&L Musical Instruments.

Mrs. Fender is an Honorary Chairman of G&L Musical Instruments in Fullerton which donated the guitar for the event. She is also a member of the Century 21 Discovery "Tree" Committee.