NEWS AND NOTES

ASSISTANCE LEAGUE HOSTS OPEN HOUSE

Assistance League of Fullerton will host an open house 1-3 p.m. Jan. 23 at its facility at 233 W. Amerige Ave. in Fullerton.

The event is meant to acquaint attendees with the work the Assistance League does and to interest those who attend in the possibility of becoming members. Personal tours of the Chapter House, Thrift Store and Operation School Bell building will be available along with displays and information about the philanthropies the group supports.

These philanthropies include vision screening in elementary schools, help for women and children leaving abusive environments, new clothing for children in need, holiday help for families in need, assistance in the classroom, Meals on Wheels and support for La Vista High School.

Refreshments will be provided.
