THURSDAY FELLOWSHIP AT LAFAYETTE ORINDA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH: HILLCREST SENIORS INVITED

Hillcrest member Clarita Wooldridge would like to let members of our congregation know about the Thursday Fellowship program held at the Lafayette Orinda Presbyterian Church which is open to seniors regardless of church affiliation. She shares the following information about the program:

Aging in Community is the cornerstone of the successful Thursday Fellowship program at Lafayette Orinda Presbyterian Church (LOPC). Thursday Fellowship developed from the belief we can live our lives more fully by listening to and enjoying the presence of one another. We conclude this must be so because this program is almost 40 years old.

Every Thursday a joyful ecumenical community of Guests and Volunteers gather in Fellowship Hall for midday fun, friendship and entertainment by coming together to share a meal, engage in crafts, listen to music, or do gentle exercise...and most of all, to socialize.

Our Guests are the “older and wiser among us” but still young-at-heart seniors who enjoy an afternoon out each week to be with friends, share a meal, enjoy activities and entertainment, build new relationships and engage in lively conversation. Program Volunteers arrange and provide some Guests transportation to and from Thursday Fellowship.

A Church affiliation or attendance is not required. This program includes guests from all the nearby cities and communities and at our last review is the only such program in Contra Costa County offering such a program without charge. Yes, you may come as a couple, a single, with a family member or caregiver. You may also come and visit to determine if this is for you or someone you know.
