

Mission Spotlight

Sovereign Grace

Matt will be traveling down to Orlando this week to be a part of Sovereign Grace's regional pastor's meeting. One of the things we expect to come out of this meeting is what our entrance into Sovereign Grace will look like, especially with regards to Matt and his family. One of the possible outcomes, includes Matt and his family moving to Louisville, Kentucky for 10 months to attend the Sovereign Grace Pastor's college, possibly as soon as this August.

Pray for: Matt and Michelle to have peace in the midst of anxiety and uncertainty. For wisdom for Matt and the Sovereign Grace pastors to make a decision that will best meet Matt's, His Way's and Sovereign grace's needs as we look forward to partnering with them in many years of fruitful ministry.

“When [the church] gathers, something otherworldly takes place. It’s an outpost of hope in a dying world, a fellowship of resurrected sinners, whose presence in the world is a foretaste of a greater transformation to come.” —Mike Cosper
