¹ These figures represent the population of expected re-registrants and come from Jill H. Wilson, Temporary Protected Status: Overview and Current Issues, Congressional Research Service, RS20844, Jan. 17, 2018, available at <https://fas.org/sgp/crs/homesec/RS20844.pdf>. This CRS report (p. 5) also includes higher figures from USCIS of individuals who had TPS but have switched to another status, left the US, died, or for other reasons did not maintain the status. The DED 745 number is based on work authorization; actual beneficiaries (including those who do not apply for work authorization) may be much higher based on various estimates.

² INA 244(b)(3) requires that DHS make a decision 60 days prior to the expiration date and “timely” publish such determination in the Federal Register. DED has no advance notice requirement.
