

Day 9

Transmission: 32:16

Music: Daniel Schotsborg - HoloSounds - Venus

We begin the process of connecting you to the universal grids of information and knowledge. You may experience flashes of Light behind your eyes and in the brain during this process.

Your heart is the portal to connect with this knowledge. You are guided by your Higher Self and the councils of Light who are dedicated to help you manifest your hearts desire. Allow the inspirations, insights, flashes of intuition and visions (which ever way you receive guidance easiest) to come into your consciousness.

Do not try and analyze what you are seeing or feeling, as that is just your ego mind. Instead surrender in the knowing that the codes release from your heart earlier in this process are now being activated by the streams of Light frequency coming from your improved connection to this universal grid.

Remember all things begin with the impulse, idea, inspiration and then take focus and actions. This level of connection to this universal grid will indeed increase your ability to cognitively tap into your own skills and talents and begin the manifestation process with much more confidence.

Allow the music to put you into a deep relaxed state which will facilitate the integration of this connection.
