

Day 7

Transmission: 31:30

Music - Daniel Schotsborg - Holo Meditations - Mother Earth

With the portals opened and aligned, this activation integrates wisdom and knowledge from aspects of your own Divine Essence, which exist in other timelines and dimensions. Working with the Divine Mothers, Grandmothers and Architects of the Divine Vehicle, the weaving of the Light codes and streams of consciousness most appropriate for your soul growth and expansion at this time ... begins.

Allow the pulse waves of Light to caress you, while the energy integrates into all levels of your matrix. This information may begin to come into your awareness through images, flashes of past or future life memories and intense emotion. This is equivalent to pulling all of the accumulated data, throughout many incarnations, to provide the most evolved knowing possible, for you.

It will be interesting to witness how your reactions change in your current reality. Situations which would normally push your buttons or cause negative emotional responses may now be navigated with a simple ease and grace. A deeper understanding of external situations or people enters into your awareness allowing you to respond in new and evolved ways.

The activation continues through the music. Be the observer. Be present with your body and emotions. Expand your awareness to perceive all that is transpiring with your most natural gifts of perception.

Breathe and remember ... you are Light!
