

Day 13

Transmission: 30:07

Music: Chris Deuel – Violet Flame Meditation

Words fail me to describe the love and support that is flowing through this transmission.

The reconfiguration of your matrix continues as new Light pathways are formed to hold the next level of your KNOWING. Only when you truly know that you are deserving, are the laws of the universe - your ability to truly receive all that is available for you - able to manifest and bring into physical reality your true desire.

Practice makes perfect as the saying goes. Each day is a new opportunity to manifest your heart's desire. Each day is a blank slate to hone your co-creative skills. Each day provides you the space to choose to love yourself more deeply than the day before.

It has been such an honor to facilitate these activations. May your heart be in "control" at all times, focusing your mind and thoughts on the boundlessness that is your true nature. Stay grounded, stay in gratitude and most of all stay in your heart!

With the love of source flowing through me... THANK YOU for BEING!
