

Day 3

Transmission 31:05

Music: Sean Maher – Ancient Transmission

A new group of Light Beings, resonating to a frequency I associate with the Angelics, are present during this entire activation. Invited by the Architects of the Divine Vehicle, their role is to reconnect the multi-dimensional axiatonal systems of our future expressions into this incarnation and body system. Acting as liaisons, they are weaving through multiple timelines, dimensions and potentialities to synthesize the appropriate streams to enhance your ability to break free of limited thought forms and behaviors.

Much of our challenge in this lifetime has nothing to do with our own personal experiences, but rather generations of thought and fear embedded into the fabric of this planetary system. These imprints and patterns are ready to be released and reprogrammed for a more positive and unlimited understanding of how to co-create from a place of power instead of fear.

As always, please allow the music to bring you deeper into a state of relaxation. Please take care of your physical vehicle during this intense process. Be sure to stay hydrated, eat foods that are nutrient rich, get plenty of rest and move your body through stretching, exercise, dance, yoga... whatever calls to you. The movement is especially important, as the axiatonal reprogramming and alignment anchor much more effectively if your body is relaxed and limber.
