

Day 8

Transmission: 28:33

Music: ean Maher – All Together Now

If only you could truly grasp the magnitude of your Light, all fear and doubt would cease to exist.

This transmission of Light begins the “download” of the next level of your own Divine Essence into your matrix; moving through the portal of your heart, piercing the threshold into this holographic expression and integrating into the new structures and platform we have been building during the first half of this series.

The energies of multiple Masters, already “transcended” from this physical reality into Light, are present, sparking the memory in your cellular structure. Their mission set the blueprint in physical reality long ago, thus making it accessible through our DNA/RNA lineage at this time in history. Some you may recognize; others unknown as they lived in solitude and secrecy.

Allow the ancient spoken language to trigger a deep sense of knowing and love within your heart. We are extraordinary Beings of Light, living ordinary physical lives, breaking free from the limitations of generations, bridging truth and illusion to set ourselves and the future of humanity free.

Please take time in the next 24 hours to write how you are feeling emotionally. Please notice how you are reacting (or more accurately NOT reacting) to emotional triggers around your personal power and capabilities. An inner strength emerges as you integrate this Light. Embrace it, own it and celebrate the shifts that are occurring in YOU!
