

Day 1

Transmission: 25:24

Music: Sean Maher – Celestial Lullaby

We begin this 13-day series with purifying energies pulsing from the center of our own heart out into our entire matrix of Light. Allow this liquid light-wave energy to pulse easily and effortlessly, bringing a deep sense of peace and tranquility.

The Architects of the Divine Vehicle are once again overseeing this work. The instructional codes and grid structures enter my awareness from higher streams of consciousness than any I previously recall. Words and descriptions may elude me during this process, as my ability to articulate these latest perceptions is more challenging.

Set your intention to go beyond your current level of cosmic understanding, tapping into new streams of consciousness and integrating fully into the energetic dynamics of your vehicle of Light.

This is an interesting and beautiful journey. Thank you for Being You!
