Refer to the CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS section for more details
The following eligibility requirements apply to Emilie House, Providence House, and Dethman House <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The household must meet the financial criteria for rental assistance as determined by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Refer to the INCOME LIMITS section for additional information. The household must agree to pay rent as calculated by HUD's rules. The household's portion of rent is generally 30% of household income. The apartment must be the household's only residence. The household must disclose and provide verification of the Social Security Numbers of all household members. Refer to the SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIREMENTS section for additional information and certain exceptions. All adult household members must sign a Consent for the Release of Information prior to receiving assistance, and annually thereafter. Household members must provide consent to verify all information reported by the household. The household must be of an appropriate size for the available apartment. Refer to the OCCUPANCY STANDARDS section for additional information.

INCOME LIMITS: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Income Limits are established each year by HUD. Eligibility for these programs is determined as Very Low. Households must have annual income that does not exceed 50% of the Area Median Income. Income Limits are published by HUD at <http://www.huduser.org/portal/index.html> or applicants can call the property manager at the number above to inquire about current income limits.

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

All apartments are 1-bedroom apartments. Management reserves the right to limit the number of individuals residing within a single apartment. Consideration is given to overcrowding and underutilization factors as well as compliance with federal, state, and local laws. Generally 1 or 2 persons will be the acceptable number of persons in a 1-bedroom unit.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIREMENTS: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Applicants are not required to have or disclose their Social Security Number (SSN) in order to be placed on the wait list. However, each member of the applicant household must disclose and provide verification of their Social Security Number (SSN) before the household may be housed, with a few exceptions as listed below. Households may retain their place on the wait list if all household members required to disclose a SSN cannot do so at the time an apartment is offered. In this case, the household will have 90 calendar days to disclose and provide verification of all SSNs. If all SSNs are disclosed and verified within 90 days, the household will be offered the next available unit. If all SSNs are not disclosed and verified within 90 calendar days of the date an apartment is offered, the application will be cancelled and the household will be removed from the wait list.

Household members who are not required to have or disclose a SSN include:

- Household members who do not claim to have eligible immigration status
- Household members who are 62 years of age and older who were already receiving federal housing assistance on January 31, 2010. Documentation verifying eligibility for this exception is required.

Household members who are not required to have a SSN at the time of move-in, but who must obtain, disclose, and provide verification of their SSN within 90 days of move-in include:

- Any child under the age of 6 who was added to the household within the 6-month period prior to the date the household moved into the unit

The documentation required to verify the SSN is a valid Social Security Number card issued by the Social Security Administration, an original document issued by a federal or state government agency with contains the name and SSN of the individual along with identifying information of the individual, or any of the following:

- Driver's license with SSN
- Earnings statements or payroll stubs
- Bank statement
- Form 1099
- Life Insurance policy
- Court records
- Benefit award letter or Retirement benefit letter
- ID card issued by a medical insurance provider, or by an employer or trade union

CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS – Emilie House and Providence Dethman House only

There are no citizenship requirements for applicants at Providence House Portland. Citizenship requirements apply only to applicants at Emilie House and Providence Dethman House.

Section 214 of the Housing & Community Development Act of 1980, as amended, prohibits the Secretary of HUD from making financial assistance available to persons other than U.S. citizens or nationals, or certain categories of eligible noncitizens, in Section 8 Housing Payment programs.

During Phase Two of the application process applicants will receive a Citizenship Declaration Notice, and must complete a Citizenship Declaration Form for each household member, a Family Summary Form, and Citizenship Declaration Verification Consent Form (if required). Every household member is required to declare U.S. citizenship, submit evidence of eligible immigration status, or choose not to claim eligible status on the Citizenship Declaration Form. Verification will be required of any household member declaring eligible immigration status. The Citizenship Declaration Form states what forms of verification are required.

Review of all forms and eligibility will be completed in conjunction with the verification of other aspects of eligibility for assistance. Failure to provide required information or establish eligible immigration status may result in denial of the housing application. If an applicant or household member is determined to be ineligible, they will have an opportunity to appeal the determination. Households with some members who are eligible for assistance and others who are ineligible for assistance, may be eligible for a reduced amount of assistance based on the number of members who are eligible.

PREFERENCES FOR ADMISSION – Emilie House and Providence Dethman House only

There are no preferences for admission at Providence House Portland. Preferences for admission are in place only at Emilie House and Providence Dethman House.

Completed applications for households that appear to meet initial eligibility criteria are placed on the wait list in the order they are received, unless the applicant qualifies for an admissions preference. A preference prioritizes the applicant household above households without a preference. Preferences will be verified when the application reaches the top of the wait list and must be valid at the time of move-in. If a preference is no longer valid, or cannot be verified, the application will be placed back on the wait list in the order of the date received. Applicants are responsible for contacting the management office if their preference status changes. Applicants who are unsure whether they qualify for a preference should contact the management office.

An Income Specific Preference is available to Extremely Low Income applicants at Emilie House and Providence Dethman House, whose household annual gross income does not exceed the higher of either 1) 30% of the Area Median Income established by HUD, with adjustments for smaller and larger households, or 2) the poverty guidelines established by the Department of Health and Human Services based on family size. The Area Median Income is subject to change by HUD, and poverty guidelines are subject to change by the Department of Health and Human Services. Refer to the INCOME LIMITS section for further information.

Project-Specific Preferences are available to applicants at Emilie House and Providence Dethman House who meet one of the following three requirements:

- currently homeless, lacks a regular/adequate nighttime residence, or is living in substandard housing which lacks heat or public utilities or is not designed as a residence, or is moving from a more restrictive setting such as a shelter or transitional housing
- currently pay more than 50% of their income for rent and public utilities
- have been or are in danger of being involuntarily displaced from current housing due to fire, disaster, domestic violence or other emergency.

At Providence Dethman House and Emilie House, a HUD Income Targeting Requirement requires that not less than 40% of the subsidized dwelling units that become available for occupancy in any project fiscal year be offered to Extremely Low Income households. The method used to achieve this requirement is that applicants presenting an Income-Specific Preference will be given priority for admission over applicants presenting a Project-Specific Preference. The income preference ensures compliance with HUD's Income Targeting Requirement. Applicants presenting a project-specific preference will be given priority for admission over applicants not presenting any preference.

There are no preferences for admission at Providence House Portland. Completed applications for households that appear to meet initial eligibility criteria are placed on the wait list in the order they are received.

ADMISSION OF NIGHT MANAGER: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

If the Night Manager qualifies for residency in a subsidized apartment and would like to be placed on the waitlist for a subsidized apartment they must complete an application and all required materials. The Night Manager may choose to vacate the Night Manager position when their application reaches the top of the waitlist, or may continue in the Night Manager role without losing their position on the waitlist as long as they continue to qualify as an applicant. If the Night Manager is an active applicant on the waitlist at the time they vacate the Night Manager role, they may be offered the next available apartment unless the contract was terminated for material breach.

WAIT LIST ORDER AND MAINTENANCE: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

The wait list is open at all times.

Applicants must notify management if any of the following changes occur:

Address or phone number	Income	Qualifications for a preference
Household composition	Criminal history

Applications will be removed from the wait list if:

- The household no longer meets the eligibility requirements for the property or the project
- The household fails to respond to a written notice requesting response in the timeframe indicated in the notice
- The household is offered and rejects two units on the property. See RIGHT OF REFUSAL section for further details
- Mail sent to the address listed on the application or as updated by the applicant is returned as undeliverable
- Changes in household size put the applicant household outside of the minimum or maximum occupancy standards

Once each year, applicants will receive a letter asking the household to confirm its continued interest in remaining on the wait list for the property. Applicants must respond to the letter in the timeframe indicated in order to maintain their position on the wait list. Applicants who do not respond in the timeframe indicated, or whose letter is returned as undeliverable, may be removed from the wait list.

ELIGIBILITY OF STUDENTS

Providence House Portland

If any member of the household is enrolled as a student at an institution of higher education, the student must meet all of the following criteria to be eligible. The student must:

- Be of legal contract age under state law;
- Have established a household separate from parents or legal guardians for at least one year prior to application for occupancy, or meet the U.S. Department of Education's definition of an independent student;

- Not be claimed as a dependent by parents or legal guardians pursuant to IRS regulations; and
- Obtain a certification of the amount of financial assistance that will be provided by parents, signed by the individual providing the support. This certification is required even if no assistance will be provided.

Providence Emilie House

Note: As of July 27, 2006 college students with disabilities are exempt from the restriction on providing Section 8 rental assistance to college students if the student with the disability was receiving assistance as of November 30, 2005.

On December 30, 2005 HUD published a final rule implementing a new law that restricts individuals who are enrolled full-time or part-time at an institution of higher education (i.e. students), under the age of 24, not a veteran, unmarried, do not have a dependent child, is not living with his/her parents who are receiving Section 8 assistance, and seeking assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (section 8 assistance) in their individual capacity (that is, separately from their parents) from receiving section 8 assistance if neither the student nor the student's parents are income eligible.

In order to establish independence from parents and be eligible for Section 8 assistance, the student must meet ALL of the following criteria:

- Be of legal contract age under state law
- Have established a household one year prior to application, OR meet DOE definition of an independent student and not be claimed as dependent pursuant to IRS regulations
- Obtain a certification of the amount of financial assistance provided by parents or legal guardian even if no assistance is provided.

Providence Dethman House

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development prohibits section 8 assistance to an individual who is enrolled at an institution of higher education (i.e. students), is under the age of 24, is not a veteran, is unmarried, does not have a dependent child, and is individually ineligible for section 8 assistance or has parents who are, individually or jointly, ineligible on the basis of income to receive assistance. Certain exceptions to the requirement that the eligibility of a student seeking section 8 assistance is determined based on income eligibility for the assistance by both the student and the student's parents. Students under the age of 24 who meet additional criteria may still be income eligible for assistance in circumstances where the student can demonstrate independence from parents, where the student can demonstrate the absence of parents, or where an examination of the student's parents' income may not be relevant. The following criteria will be considered, including but not limited to whether:

1. The individual is of legal contract age under state law
2. The individual has established a household separate from parents or legal guardians for at least one year prior to application for occupancy or the individual meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of an "independent student." Section 480(d) of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (the HEA), 20 U.S.C. 1087VV(d).
3. The individual is not claimed as a dependent by parents or legal guardians pursuant to IRS regulations.
4. The individual obtains a certification of the amount of financial assistance that will be provided by parents, signed by the individual providing the support, even if no assistance will be provided.

Management is required to verify a student's independence from his or her parents to determine that the student's parents' income is not relevant for determining the student's eligibility for assistance by doing all of the following:

1. Reviewing and verifying previous address information to determine evidence of a separate household or verifying the student meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of "independent student";
2. Reviewing a student's prior year income tax returns to verify the student is independent or verifying the student meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of "independent student"; and
3. Verifying income provided by a parent by requiring a written certification from the individual providing the support. Certification is also required if the parent is providing no support to the student. Financial assistance that is provided by persons not living in the unit is part of annual income. (Except if the student meets the Department of Education's definition of "independent student" in paragraphs (b), (c) or (h) adopted as part of the U.S. Department of Education's definition of "independent student" as noted below.)

The U.S. Department of Education's definition of "independent student", which applies is:

- a. The individual is 24 years of age or older by December 31 of the award year;
- b. The individual is an orphan, in foster care, or a ward of the court or was an orphan, in foster care, or a ward of the court at any time when the individual was 13 years of age or older;
- c. The individual is, or was immediately prior to attaining the age of majority, an emancipated minor or in legal guardianship as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in the individual's State of legal residence;
- d. The individual is a veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States (as defined in subsection (c)(1) of HEA) or is currently serving on active duty in the Armed Forces for other than training purposes;
- e. The individual is a graduate or professional student;
- f. The individual is a married individual
- g. The individual has legal dependents other than a spouse;
- h. The individual has been verified during the school year in which the application is submitted as either an unaccompanied youth who is a homeless child or youth (as such terms are defined in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act) (42 U.S.C. 11431 et seq.), or as unaccompanied, at risk of homelessness, and self-supporting, by –
 - i. a local educational agency homeless liaison, designated pursuant to section 722(g)(1)(J)(ii) of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act;
 - ii. the director of a program funded under the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act or a designee of the director;
 - iii. the director of a program funded under subtitle B of title IV of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (relating to emergency shelter grants) or a designee of the director; or
 - iv. a financial aid administrator; or
- i. the individual is a student for whom a financial aid administrator makes a documented determination of independence by reason of other unusual circumstances.

PROCEDURES FOR ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS AND SELECTING FROM THE WAIT LIST:

Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

The application process has two phases. The first phase requires completion of the Application For Housing Wait List and all required attachments. The second phase requires completion of the Application For Housing and all required attachments and forms. The second phase is initiated when the applicant is nearing the top of the wait list.

Phase One

The Application For Housing Wait List package includes the following forms which must be completed and submitted to the management office to be considered for placement on the wait list. Incomplete, inaccurate, or illegible forms will be returned to the applicant.

- Application for Housing Wait List – this form must be completed and signed by all adult household members.
- Race and Ethnicity Data Reporting Form – Completion of the race and ethnic data on the form is optional, but each household member must sign their own copy of this form, even if they choose to leave the data blank.
- Contact Information Form – Completion of the contact information is optional, but the head of household must sign and return a copy of the form, even if they choose to leave the contact information blank.
- Tenant Selection Plan – Applicants should review this Tenant Selection Plan and retain it for their records. It does not need to be signed or returned to the office.

If the information provided on the Application for Housing Wait List indicates that the applicant meets the eligibility criteria, then the first phase of the application process is complete and the applicant will be placed on the wait list. Applicants will be notified that they have been added to the wait list.

Phase Two

When the applicant is nearing the top of the wait list, an Application for Housing will be mailed to the applicant. Applicants at Providence Emilie House and Providence Dethman House will also receive a Citizenship Declaration Notice and required forms. A certification interview will be scheduled with the household. During the interview, the household will complete all remaining application and certification forms, including forms to verify income, assets and medical expenses, citizenship or eligible immigration status, landlord reference forms, personal or professional references, and release of information forms. Photo ID and verification of Social Security Number must be provided, and will be used to conduct a background check including criminal, eviction and credit history.

UNIT OFFER: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Applicants will be contacted by mail when a unit is available, and must respond within 7 days to either accept or reject the unit. Refer to the RIGHT OF REFUSAL section for further information.

It is important that applicants inform the office of any changes to mailing address or phone number so management can reach the applicant when their application nears the top of the wait list. If the applicant household fails to respond to the unit offer in the required timeframe, the unit will be offered to the next qualified applicant on the wait list. The application may be cancelled.

RIGHT OF REFUSAL: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

An applicant may turn down the offer of a unit for which they are eligible one time and retain their position on the wait list. If an applicant turns down a unit for which they are eligible a second time, the application will be cancelled and the applicant will be removed from the wait list. The applicant may reapply.

There is one exception to this policy. An applicant who requires a unit designed for mobility access, or a unit with auditory/visual accessibility features may be offered apartments without those features, and may turn down those apartments without losing their place on the wait list. When offered an accessible unit that meets the applicant's stated requirements, the applicant may turn down the offer of the first accessible unit and retain their position on the wait list, but if they turn down a second accessible unit, the application will be cancelled and the applicant will be removed from the wait list. The applicant may reapply.

TENANT SCREENING CRITERIA: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Application Criteria

- Applicants must meet all criteria listed in the ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS section of this document.
- Applicants must provide all required documentation and information, sign all required documents, and update management with any changes to contact information within requested timelines.
- Applicants must not submit false or incomplete information in the application process.

Rental and Credit History Criteria

- Applicants must demonstrate history of paying rent in full and on time. If the applicant(s) has no rental history, a credit check must show no excessive unpaid amounts for utilities and/or other bills.
- References from landlords from the past three years must be clear of any disinclination to rent to applicants again due to failure to pay rent or other charges, damage to the premises, or disturbances to the peaceful enjoyment of the premises.
- Applicants must have no history of unlawful detainers or eviction proceedings for non-payment or other lease violations against any household member within the three years prior to being offered an apartment. In the event that eviction proceedings were due to lease violations caused by a previous household member who will not be part of the applicant household, the applicant household must provide an explanation of the circumstances along with supporting documentation for review by management.

Public Records Screening

Public records screening criteria are designed to help ensure the safety and protection of people and property.

- Applicants and any household members with pending criminal charges for drug violations or violent crimes will not be considered for housing until charges have been formally dismissed. If an application reaches the top of the waitlist, and the applicant or any household member has pending criminal charges, the applicant may retain their position until charges are dismissed, or for 120 days, whichever occurs first. If charges have not been dismissed after 120 days, the applicant may request an extension to remain on the waitlist until charges are dismissed, and must provide documentation from a legal aide or court system that shows the case is proceeding. If an extension is not requested by 120 days, the application will be rejected, and the applicant may appeal. See the REJECTION OF INELIGIBLE APPLICANTS section for further details.
- An application may be denied if applicant or any household member demonstrates abusive or violent behavior that may pose a direct threat to the health, safety, or welfare of residents, the public, or staff

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development prohibits the following persons from receiving federally subsidized housing:

- Any household containing a member(s) who was evicted in the last three years from federally assisted housing for drug-related criminal activity. Two exceptions may be considered: 1) The evicted household member has successfully completed an approved, supervised drug rehabilitation program; or 2) The circumstances leading to the eviction no longer exist (e.g. the household member no longer resides with the applicant household).

- A household in which any member is currently engaged in illegal use of drugs or federally controlled substances or for which there is reasonable cause to believe that a household member's illegal use or pattern of use of illegal drugs or federally controlled substances may interfere with the health, safety, and right to peaceful enjoyment of the property by residents, staff or guests (CFR 5.854)
- Any applicant or household member who is subject to lifetime registration requirements under any State sex offender registration program; or (CFR 5.856)
- Any household member if there is reasonable cause to believe that a member's behavior, from abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol, may interfere with the health, safety, and right to peaceful enjoyment by other residents. (CFR 5.857)

Further screening criteria include:

- Applicants with any drug-related misdemeanor convictions for manufacture, distribution, or possession with intent to distribute within the past two years must complete the individual assessment process before being considered for housing.
- The following requires two years free of criminal convictions immediately following the most recent conviction:
 - A single misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor conviction for assault (without a weapon), disturbing the peace, property crimes, or other convictions, except traffic violations.
- The following requires five years free of criminal convictions immediately following the most recent conviction:
 - A single drug-related felony conviction,
 - A history of multiple misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor convictions for assault (without a weapon), disturbing the peace, property crimes, or other convictions, except traffic violations.
 - A single incident of felony assault
 - Conviction of sexual assault, domestic violence or abuse, elder abuse, or child abuse
- The following requires seven years free of criminal convictions immediately following the most recent conviction, and also requires an Individual Assessment by management.
 - Any violent felony not previously addressed
 - A history of multiple felony assaults and/or violent crimes
 - Any conviction for violence involving a weapon of any kind
 - Conviction of a hate crime
- Applicants and all household members with a criminal record of any offense(s) not listed above may request an individual assessment process. Please request information about this process from the management office.

VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

An applicant's or a tenant's status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking is not a basis for denial of rental assistance or for denial of admission, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission.

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is the Federal agency that oversees that HUD 202 PRAC, 202/8 and Low Income Housing Tax Credit programs are in compliance with VAWA. Prior to move-in, tenants will receive HUD form 5380 Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women act, and HUD form 5382 Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking, and Alternate Documentation. In accordance with HUD regulations, Providence House also maintains HUD form 5381 Emergency Transfer Plan and HUD form 5383 Emergency Transfer Request. Tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking may request an emergency transfer per the Emergency Transfer Plan requirements, using the Emergency Transfer Request form.

REJECTION OF INELIGIBLE APPLICANTS: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Applicants who do not meet the screening criteria will be notified in writing, sent by US mail, why they will not be accepted as tenants within 5 business days of management conducting the screening that determined the applicant to be ineligible. (Criminal history screening, landlord reference screening, verification required eligibility elements and other screening may be conducted at different times, and applicants may pass some screening criteria and not others.) This notification letter will be signed by the Housing Director. The letter states the reason the applicant appears to be ineligible. The letter also states that applicants will be given an opportunity to meet with the Housing Director within 30 days of the date of the letter to discuss any questions they have regarding the screening criteria or to appeal the decision by presenting additional information relevant to the screening process. Applicants may correct, refute, or explain negative information forming the basis for denial. In addition, the letter provides contact information for the Compliance & Quality Director, and a 14-day timeline for the applicant to dispute the rejection of their application by contacting the Compliance & Quality Director.

If a unit was offered to the applicant prior to the denial of application, the unit will be offered to the next person on the wait list. However, if the applicant presents additional information that mitigates the reason for rejection, the household may be re-instated on the wait list at the position they held when the rejection was made. Applicants whose appeals are approved will remain pre-qualified for rental opportunities for three months following the approval date, and will be required to certify in writing that no conditions have materially changed from those described in the approved application.

UNIT TRANSFER POLICY: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Transfers between units are facilitated only as a Reasonable Accommodation, and only based upon the need for specific features in the unit. Transfers based on a Reasonable Accommodation take priority over new applications.

When there is neither a qualified applicant nor current tenant with disabilities requiring the accessibility features of an accessible unit, management may offer the unit to another household provided that the household enter into an agreement that they will move to a non-accessible unit within the same project if another household requires the features of the accessible unit.

HUD HOME PROGRAM: Providence Dethman House and Providence House Portland only

Eleven (11) apartments at Providence Dethman House, and fourteen (14) units at Providence House Portland are designated as HUD HOME units in addition to receiving HUD subsidies. The criteria for residency is the same for all apartments, as are calculations for rent and utility allowances. There are no additional subsidies or benefits to households in a HUD HOME unit.

After initial tenancy, if the income of a household in a HUD HOME designated unit exceeds 80% of the area median income, the HOME designation will be reassigned to the apartment of whichever eligible household is next due for an annual recertification, or to the next new move-in who meets all eligibility requirements.

There are no HUD HOME units at Providence Emilie House.

ENTERPRISE INCOME VERIFICATION (EIV) SYSTEM:

Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Providence Emilie House, Providence House Portland, and Providence Dethman house use EIV which is an internet-based data system containing employment and income information on individuals participating in HUD's rental assistance programs. This information comes from the Social Security Administration, the Department of Health and Human Services, and the National Directory of New Hires. This information is used in order to verify social security numbers and correct reporting of income for all household members. EIV is also used to determine if applicants are currently receiving HUD rental assistance at another property.

During the application process, all adult household members are required to sign form HUD-9887, Notice and Consent for the Release of Information, and form HUD-9887A, Applicant/Tenant Consent to the Release of Information. All adult tenants are required to sign these forms annually. These forms give consent for HUD and property management to obtain information, verify information, and determine eligibility for HUD rental assistance. Failure to sign the consent forms may result in the denial of assistance or termination of assisted housing benefits.

As part of the applicant screening process, management will run an EIV Existing Tenant Search for all household members. This report checks to see whether any household member is currently living in another Public & Indian Housing or Multifamily site. If that is the case, management will coordinate move-out and move-in dates with the current property to avoid a double subsidy request to HUD.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Applicants with disabilities retain the right to request reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services including those pertaining to the application process, and retain the right to request reasonable modifications to their apartment or common areas if such accommodations or modifications are necessary to afford the applicant equal opportunity to enjoy the premises. Requests for reasonable accommodation should be made to management, and the applicant will be asked to provide information to help verify disability and/or the need for the requested accommodation/verification. A written response will be sent to the applicant within 14 days of the request.

LIVE-IN AIDES/ATTENDANTS: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Live-In Aides/Attendants must complete a Live-In Aide Application and all required forms and attachments, and be approved by management prior to occupancy. Live-In Aides/Attendants must pass all screening criteria except the criterion to pay rent on time, as they are not responsible for rental payments. Live-In Aides/Attendants will be required to provide identification and proof of SSN in order to conduct the screening.

MARKETING: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

The property may be marketed via newspaper ads, the Providence website, and flyers placed in the surrounding community and sent to community organizations in accordance with the approved HUD Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan. Advertising targets individuals whose annual income is at the extremely low income level for the area. Management maintains contact with community groups and organizations that work with persons who are least likely to apply.

FAIR HOUSING AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

The owners and management of Providence Emilie House, Providence House Portland, and Providence Dethman House comply with all federal, state, and local housing and civil rights laws. Federal law prohibits discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, age, or handicap. Administrative procedures further prohibit discrimination based on certain class memberships.

Management promotes and provides equal housing choice for all prospective and current tenants regardless of race, color, religion, creed, national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, handicap, familial or marital status, or membership in any class of persons.

All of the above requirements apply to the acceptance and processing of applications, selection of tenants from among eligible applicants on the waiting list, assignment of units, and the certification and recertification of eligibility for housing assistance.

SECTION 504 AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE FOR DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

Providence Emilie House, Providence House Portland, and Providence Dethman House do not discriminate on the basis of disability status in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in its federally assisted programs and activities.

According to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, “no otherwise qualified individual with disabilities in the United States shall, solely by reason of his or her disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance...”

If at any point during the application process an applicant feels they have experienced discrimination based on disability, they may file a grievance. The person named below has been designated to coordinate compliance with the nondiscrimination requirements contained in the Department of Housing and Urban Development’s regulations implementing Section 504 (24 CFR, part 8 dated June 2, 1988). Please contact her in writing* to file your grievance. She will respond in writing within 10 days from the date of the grievance.

Leslie Hill, Director of Compliance, Quality & Innovation,
Providence Supportive Housing, 1730 Minor Ave, Suite 400 Seattle, WA 98101-2402

If you would like an additional review of your grievance and the response from the Section 504 Coordinator, please contact the Executive Director Housing in writing* at the address listed above.

At any time during this process you have the right to file a Fair Housing Complaint with the Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity office of HUD at 888-877-0246.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE: Emilie House/Providence House/Dethman House

If the applicant wishes to grieve the decision denying tenancy, they must contact management within fourteen (14) days from the date of the denial letter to request a meeting to discuss the reasons for the denial and/or to present additional information. The Housing Director will consider all new information and within five (5) business days of the meeting, will send written notification of their decision to approve the application or retain the denial

If the applicant would like an additional review of all file information, they should write* to: Executive Director, Providence Supportive Housing, 1730 Minor Ave, Suite 400 Seattle, WA 98101-2402

Persons with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation in order to meet this requirement.*

Right to Request a Modification or Accommodation Notice Required Under Portland City Code Title 30.01.086.C.3.B

Within the City of Portland, a landlord is required to include this notice with application forms for the rental of a dwelling unit.

State and federal laws, including the Fair Housing Act, make it illegal for housing providers to refuse to make reasonable accommodations and reasonable modifications for individuals with disabilities. All persons with a disability have a right to request and be provided a reasonable accommodation or modification at any time, from application through to termination/eviction.

Some examples of reasonable accommodations include:

- Assigning an accessible parking space
- Transferring a tenant to a ground-floor unit
- Changing the rent payment schedule to accommodate when an individual receives public benefits
- Allowing an applicant to submit a housing application via a different means
- Allowing an assistance animal in a "no pets" building. More information about assistance animals is available here:
https://www.hud.gov/program_offices/fair_housing_equal_opportunity/assistance_animals

Some examples of reasonable modification include:

- Adding a grab bar to a tenant's bathroom
- Installing visual smoke alarm systems
- Installing a ramp to the front door

Under fair housing laws, a person with a disability is someone:

- With a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities of the individual;
- With a record of having a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities of the individual; or
- Who is regarded as having a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

Major life activities include, but are not limited to seeing, walking, reaching, lifting, hearing, speaking, interacting with others, concentrating, learning, and caring for oneself.

Reasonable Accommodations

A reasonable accommodation is a change or exception to a rule, policy, practice, or service that may be necessary for a person with a disability to have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling. This includes public use and common spaces or fulfilling their program obligations. Any change in the way things are customarily done that allows a person with a disability to enjoy housing opportunities or to meet program requirements is a reasonable accommodation.

All housing or programs are required to make reasonable accommodations. Housing providers may not require persons with disabilities to pay extra fees or deposits or any other special requirements as a condition of receiving a reasonable accommodation.

Reasonable Modifications

A reasonable modification is a structural change made to the premises in order to afford an individual with a disability full enjoyment of the premises. Reasonable modifications can include structural changes to interiors and exteriors of dwellings and to public use and common areas.

Under federal law, public housing agencies, other federally assisted housing providers, and state or local government entities are required to provide and pay for structural modifications as reasonable accommodations/modifications. For private housing, the person requesting the reasonable modification will need to cover the costs of the modification.

Verification of Disability

In response to an accommodation or modification request and only when it is necessary to verify that a person has a disability that is not known or apparent to the housing provider, they can ask an applicant/tenant to provide documentation from a qualified third party (professional), that the applicant or tenant has a disability that results in one or more functional limitation. If the disability-related need for the requested accommodation or modification is not known or obvious, the housing provider can request documentation stating that the requested accommodation or modification is necessary because of the disability, and that it will allow the applicant/tenant access to the unit and any amenities or services included with the rental equally to other tenants.

A housing provider cannot inquire into the nature or extent of a known or apparent disability or require that an applicant or tenant release his or her medical records. Housing providers can require that the verification come from a qualified professional, but they cannot require that it be a medical doctor.

Nondiscrimination laws cover applicants and tenants with disabilities, as well as applicants and tenants and without disabilities who live or are associated with individuals with disabilities. These laws also prohibit housing providers from refusing to rent to persons with disabilities, making discriminatory statements, and treating persons with disabilities less favorably than other tenants because of their disability.

Under fair housing laws, it is illegal for a housing provider to deny reasonable accommodations and reasonable modifications to individuals with disabilities. If wrongfully denied an accommodation or modification contact HUD or the Fair Housing Council of Oregon. Time limits apply to asserting any legal claims for discrimination.

Within the City of Portland, a landlord is required to include this notice with application forms for the rental of a dwelling unit.

City of Portland Applicant Rights

The City of Portland has adopted local requirements that provide additional rights and responsibilities for landlords and applicants for rental housing, beyond state law requirements, during the rental unit advertising and application process.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit supplemental information to offset any reasons that could lead to denial. In the event of denial, applicants have the right to appeal the decision within 30 days.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to review their rights before submitting an application.

City requirements address the following landlord tenant topics: advertising and application process screening, security deposits, depreciation schedules, rental history, notice rights, and rights for relocation assistance.

The City of Portland city code, rules, required notices and forms are listed below, and are available at: [portland.gov/rso] or by contacting the Rental Services Office at (503) 823-1303 or rentalservices@portlandoregon.gov.
