We start our trip in Vancouver then venture to God's Pocket Dive Resort for some truly spectacular diving. God's Pocket is pristine, extremely remote (limited access to mainland), with some of the most amazing scenery in the world. Here we will get to see giant Pacific octopuses (GPO), nudibranchs, wolf eels, rockfish, anemones, shrimp and endless amounts of underwater marine life. Top of the bucket list is the GPO and God's Pocket rarely disappoints. Another favorite is the Puget Sound King Crab and finding one on an endless wall covered in layers and layers of life is breathtaking, kayaking, wilderness hikes and snorkeling is also available.

Includes:

- Hotel in Vancouver (YVR) on Oct. 15th (double occupancy)
- Group transfer to Port Hardy via rental cars and BC ferries
- Water taxi from Port Hardy to lodge
- All diving, accommodations and meals at God's Pocket
- Nitrox
- Tanks and weights
