INTERNATIONAL WOMEN’S DAY

“International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for moving towards gender parity.”

FOR OVER 100 YEARS

Held every year, International Women's Day (IWD) has taken place on March 8 for over 100 years.

THE MAIN AIMS OF INTERNATIONAL WOMEN’S DAY ARE:

- to celebrate the achievements of women around the world
- to encourage action on issues of gender equality
- to empower women and girls around the world

While IWD celebrates inspirational contemporary and historical women, the day also aims to start conversations about gender equity issues.

Did you know?

- Globally, women make up just 23% of people in national parliaments worldwide.¹
- Women, on average, earn 25-40% less than men who do the same job.²
- Across the world, over 60% of the people who cannot read are women.³

In 1975, IWD was adopted by the United Nations as an official, world-wide celebration of women's rights and world peace.

The International Women's Day website says that the day “belongs to all groups”. People of all genders, cultures, ages, languages and religions can take part in International Women's Day. Some of the important topics that are thought about on International Women's Day are:

- gender equality
- girls and women in leadership
- personal and family safety
- poverty
- access to education
- empowerment
