This year, we are excited to unveil a new Federation theme. Come Together is a celebration of the unity and cohesiveness that makes metro Detroit one of the most vibrant and enduring Jewish communities to be found anywhere.

It also reflects an important aspect of the work we do as the central resource for Jewish life and welfare.

Now more than ever, the Jewish Federation is uniting organizations from across the community to dream, plan and build for the good of everyone. Together, we are creating new programs, processes and technologies to ensure the health and welfare of the community. You will see examples of this on the pages of this report, along with our key financial reports and an overview of our mission and areas of impact.

This important work is only possible through the extraordinary generosity of our donors and volunteers, whose passion and commitment fuels our efforts.

On behalf of the community, we are grateful for all you have done.

CORE AREAS OF IMPACT 2018
Providing for the well-being of the most vulnerable members of our community is a core value of our Jewish heritage and one of the fundamental aspects of Federation's mission to serve the Jewish community. The range of services offered through our family of partner agencies is extensive, and now includes JHELP, a website and phone number that make it easier for individuals to get the assistance they need (see page 13), and We Need to Talk, a new program designed to address the crisis of anxiety, depression and other mental health issues among young people (see page 14).

Federation also stands ready to respond to disasters and urgent needs as they emerge. We are here to ensure the security and stability of our community, as well as to take care of those whose lives are affected in times of crisis, whether it means securing emergency resources, coordination of services or direct response to critical issues.
In addition to taking care of those in need, we also strive to ensure a strong and vibrant Jewish future for our entire community. This encompasses the work of strengthening Jewish identity through all ages and stages of life—Jewish pre-schools, summer camps, congregational schools, adult education courses and more. It also means building and sustaining Jewish life here in Detroit, in Israel and throughout the world. Federation remains deeply committed to Jewish engagement and, in particular, has led a revitalization of millennial and ‘Gen X’ engagement in the Detroit area. Finally, we remain focused on growing Jewish philanthropy through our Annual Campaign, Centennial Fund and a variety of other sources of support that help us secure the long-term future of our community.
Strengthening Jewish Identity

Jewish education and identity are the foundation of a strong Jewish community. Our Jewish values, heritage and culture are shaped through a variety of educational and identity-building outlets that emphasize not just personal growth and learning, but also the central role of community in our religious tradition. The Jewish Federation works to strengthen Jewish identity through its support for our JCC, schools, congregations and agencies, as well as through a variety of direct service programs.

Programs and services include:

• Hebrew Day Schools and Congregational Education Programs
• Adult Jewish Education—including FedEd and Melton at the JCC
• Early Childhood Education
• Special Needs Education—including Opening the Doors at the JCC
• Hillels on Campus
• Jewish Camping Experiences—including Tamarack and JCC camps
• Professional Development for Jewish Educators
• BBYO and other Jewish Youth Group Program Support
• Israel Experiences
Marking the 70th year of Israel’s Statehood, the Jewish Federation and the Jewish Community Center—in partnership with GM River Days and the Detroit RiverFront Conservancy—hosted over four thousand Jewish Detroiters for an exclusive GM River Days preview event on a beautiful June afternoon and evening. Guests enjoyed carnival rides, games and family activities along with Israeli cuisine, live music and dancing. Community partners included more than 30 local congregations and Jewish organizations, united under a single festive tent, while on the bandstand musical acts included Sheldon Low of Songleader Boot Camp’ fame and Capaim, a high-energy Israeli band. Infused with our community’s tremendous passion and commitment for our Jewish homeland, Israel@70 was truly an event to remember. Special thanks goes to the Susie and Norman Pappas Challenge Fund, which helped make this amazing event possible.
A recent Jewish Fund survey revealed that many individuals in our community do not understand the distinctions between our various social service agencies, and others are unaware of the services that are available. This presents a fundamental challenge in our ability to reach and serve those in need of assistance.

Our solution is JHELP, a single connection point for those seeking support. With one call or visit to our site, community members will be guided to whatever assistance is necessary, whether it be crisis support, long-term case management or any other service. JHELP connects users directly to the Resource Center at Jewish Family Service, where professionals are ready to assist individuals in need.

The site offers several ways to contact the Resource Center, including email and live online chat. Resource Center staff will respond and coordinate follow-up activities in conjunction with Jewish agencies throughout the community.

1833-44J-HELP (1-833-445-4357)
In response to the growing incidences of depression, anxiety and other mental health issues among young people, the Jewish Federation launched We Need to Talk, a community-wide initiative focused on raising awareness and providing tools and resources for those in need of care. The program includes in-depth training, community lectures and a website for young people, parents and family members, teachers and other professionals. By bringing this issue into the light – and telling our stories – we can lift the stigma associated with mental health challenges and begin to address the problems we face as a community.

Building Jewish Community

Supporting and strengthening Jewish community remain at the core of Federation's work. This encompasses both our local community in metro Detroit, now over 100 years old and still one of the most vibrant to be found anywhere, as well as our broader Jewish community across the nation, in Israel and throughout the world.

Federation’s Community-Building Programs Include:

- NEXTGen Detroit: Serving as the hub of a vibrant and dynamic Jewish community for young adults in Metro Detroit, NEXTGen Detroit is the connector for all things young and Jewish.
- Women’s Philanthropy: For 70 years, Women’s Philanthropy has empowered women of all ages through education, volunteerism and fundraising efforts.
- Affinities: Custom programming to engage unique demographics and groups within the Detroit Jewish community, such as physicians, ‘Gen-Xers,’ and interfaith couples.
- Leadership Development: Dynamic training and educational programs to create and sustain a cadre of community leaders to meet the challenges of today and tomorrow.
Cabinet is Jewish Federation of North America’s (JFNA) elite leadership-training program for people between the ages of 30 and 40. It attracts the best and the brightest leaders of the Jewish community from across the country. Participants are given unique opportunities to deepen their relationship with the Detroit Federation and its 17 partner agencies through educational, social and fundraising experiences. In addition, Cabinet members travel abroad each year to deepen their knowledge of Federation’s impact worldwide so they can be more effective leaders, advocates and storytellers in their home communities.

The Cabinet program has been going strong for 55 years and has trained and inspired over 4,000 young adults since it began. This year, 19 passionate and invested young Detroiter will make up its National Young Leadership Cabinet delegation, the largest amount our community has ever had in a single year.
Women’s Philanthropy hosted its annual Signature Event, bringing together over 500 participants to support the Annual Campaign and celebrate the strength and impact of Jewish women in our community. The event featured comedian Susie Essman, better known as Susie Green in HBO’s long-running series Curb Your Enthusiasm, as well an emotional presentation that highlighted Federation’s transformative work throughout Jewish Detroit. Collectively, Women’s Philanthropy raised $600,000 at the event, bringing in 60 new donors and inspiring over 200 women to increase their donations.

Once again, the Signature Event demonstrated the extraordinary power of Women’s Philanthropy, a longstanding leader in Federation’s campaign, outreach and engagement efforts.
The Jewish Federation Centennial Fund is the primary endowment fund for securing our community’s future and will provide for the welfare and continuity of Jewish life in Detroit for the next 100 years. With a goal of $250 million, this fund will enable us to provide for our fellow Jews in Detroit, in Israel and throughout the world. It will impact the full range of Jewish needs and experiences, including social welfare, Jewish identity and education and Jewish life around the world. It also supports the Perpetual Annual Campaign Endowment (PACE), a critical fund that ensures that ongoing needs are met regardless of changing circumstances from year to year.

This was another extraordinary year for the Centennial Fund. To date, we have received 147 commitments totaling $218 million to support the long-term health and security of our community.

Thanks to the support of our generous donors, we are in sight of reaching and surpassing this ambitious and transformative goal.
Federation is

Affinities
The Jewish Federation Affinities Department creates meaningful touch points for like-minded groups through creative programming for under-engaged community members. This engagement leads to an increased or deeper connection to the community and commitment to Jewish philanthropy.

Farber Hebrew Day School
We provide a Judaic Studies and college preparatory program in a Modern Orthodox, Zionist environment that nurtures personal and intellectual growth, social and moral responsibility and a strong sense of self for each student.

American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee
We are the world’s leading Jewish humanitarian assistance organization, working in more than 70 countries and Israel to rescue Jews at risk, to bring relief to Jews in dire need and to renew Jewish community life in areas where it has not been allowed to flourish.

Birthright Israel-Taglit
We seek to increase the annual number of Jews visiting Israel by providing the gift of first-time educational trips to the Holy Land for thousands of mostly unaffiliated Jewish young adults.

BBYO
We shape our community’s next generation of leaders by positively impacting the lives of Jewish teens in Metro Detroit, providing them with meaningful Judaic, social justice and leadership development programming.

Jewish Education
We ensure that the local community receives the highest quality Jewish education and identity building services by creating, planning and convening programs and engaging the community and its leadership.
