

Prescription & Medical Assistance

Prescription Assistance Programs

- NeedyMeds helps people of all ages, with and without insurance, locate Patient Assistance Programs, free/low cost clinics, state programs and offers a free NeedyMeds Drug Discount Card. For more information, you may call their helpline at 800-503-6897. <https://www.needymeds.org/>
- RxAssist helps individuals find information about free and low cost medication programs and other ways to manage your medication cost through their online Patient Assistance Program Center. They also provide a prescription discount card that patients may be able to use even if they have health insurance coverage. <https://www.rxassist.org/>
- Partnership for Prescription Assistance helps qualifying people without prescription drug coverage get the medication they need for free or nearly free. They offer access to public and private programs, including pharmaceutical company programs. <https://www.pparx.org/>
- RxHope provides program descriptions and downloadable applications for prescription assistance programs for specific medications. <https://www.rxhope.com/faq.aspx>
- PatientAssistance.com is a nonprofit site that offers money-saving offers such as printable coupons and a searchable database of available patient assistance programs. <https://www.patientassistance.com/>
- Texas Drug Card - <https://texasdrugcard.com/> Free discount prescription card coupon, allows you to compare drug prices for pharmacies in your area.
- GoodRx allows you to compare drug prices from pharmacies in your area, including big pharmacy chains, local pharmacies and mail order companies. <https://www.goodrx.com/>

You can also consider utilizing a prescription savings card such as FamilyWize. FamilyWize, a trusted MHA partner, is a community service partnership focused on enabling everyone, both insured and uninsured, to have access to more affordable medications.

The FamilyWize Prescription Discount Card:

- Is FREE for all
- Has no eligibility requirements
- Gives you discounts on your meds, whether you have insurance or not
- Saves you an average of 54% on mental health medications

Prescription & Medical Assistance

Other Resources

There are a variety of organizations that offer prescription assistance for medications used to treat specific medical conditions. While these organizations do not offer assistance in covering the cost of psychotropic medications, they may be helpful if you have other health problems. Some of these programs offer financial assistance for those who have insurance but have high co-pays. Some also offer assistance with insurance premiums.

- Patient Advocate Foundation Co-Pay Relief at 1-866-512-3861
- National Organization for Rare Diseases (NORD) at 1-800-999-NORD
- Patient Services Inc. at 1-800-366-7741
- HealthWell Foundation at 1-800-675-8416
- Patient Access Network Foundation at 1-866-316-7263

Free/Low-Cost/Sliding Scale Medical Clinics – This database offers medical services and are free, low-cost, low-cost with a sliding scale based on income, or offer some type of financial assistance.

<https://www.needymeds.org/medical-clinics>