DESCRIPTION

The Missouri Supreme Court has ruled that prior noneconomic damages caps in medical malpractice cases are unconstitutional. But now brand new caps are in place, and we have a new health care provider negligence cause of action, too. This seminar will explain the new laws, including the unique way Missouri now defines “catastrophic injuries”, and will raise important questions about expert witness testimony, motion practice and jury instructions in light of the changes. This seminar is a must for anyone who practices in the area of health care provider negligence.
