DESCRIPTION

The greatest need for donated legal assistance tends to be in the area of family law (Dissolution of Marriage (Divorce), Establishing Child Support, Modifying Existing Judgments, Adoptions, Guardianships, and the like). Even if you do not practice family law, consider making this your pro bono niche. This program is designed for lawyers with no to limited experience in the area of family law. This “how to” course takes you step-by-step in handling common issues faced by people in a variety of family law situations. You will receive invaluable information and practical tips in a fast-moving, general overview format that addresses issues critical to understanding and effectively handling basic family law issues.
