Speaker Biographies

Anthony W. Bonuchi, Bonuchi Law

Bonuchi Law is built on the broad appellate and litigation experience of Tony Bonuchi. Before founding the firm, Tony was a partner in the appellate and litigation practice groups at one of the nation's largest law firms. He has briefed or argued appeals in state and federal courts across the nation and as trial counsel he has managed every aspect of litigation. His clients range from startups, entrepreneurs, and individuals to some of the country's most successful companies. Tony's cases cover a wide range of issues, including antitrust, intellectual property, administrative and constitutional law, consumer protection, mass torts, class action, personal injury, employment, corporate governance, and officer, director, fiduciary, and professional liability.

David A. Brose, Langdon & Emison, LLC

As a former partner in a civil litigation defense firm, David defended various Fortune 500 companies in both personal injury and commercial litigation, with an emphasis on product liability and trucking cases.
He now puts his understanding of defense tactics and strategies to work on behalf of victims across the country who have been seriously injured or killed by a wide variety of dangerous products and instrumentalities.

David has been honored by Missouri/Kansas Super Lawyers and by the National Trial Lawyers 40 Under 40. He is a proud graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia where he earned his juris doctor and a master’s degree in business administration. While in law school, David served as a member of the Missouri Environmental Law and Policy Review and received the C.A.L.I. Award for work in Corporate Taxation.

David is an active member of the Missouri Association of Trial Attorneys, the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association and the American Association for Justice. When away from the office, he enjoys spending time with his wife, Amy Brose, M.D., a family practice physician in the Kansas City area, and their daughters, Ava and Anna.

Nick Harris, Digital Strata

Nick Harris is a Senior Forensic Analyst and Software Developer at Digital Strata, performing forensic collections, examinations and reporting, as well as developing custom software solutions that support both clients and internal review teams. Client base ranges from small and mid-sized law firms to large corporate clients, including Samsung, Applied Materials, and Cisco Systems, as well as large legal clients, including Dentons, Orrick and the Kansas City Missouri Bar Association.

Mr. Harris’ non-client work at Digital Strata is focused on internal tool development. He has written hundreds of programs that support the internal Digital Strata technology infrastructure, as well as significantly streamline collection and ingestion of evidence.

Mr. Harris holds a Bachelors of Science in Computer Information Systems from Humboldt State University, is EnCase certified (EnCE), and a GIAC Certified Forensic Examiner (GCFE).
Matthew S. Jensen, Rasmussen Dickey Moore, LLC

Matt Jensen received his undergraduate and law degrees from Michigan State University. He joined Rasmussen Dickey Moore, LLC in 1997 and practices primarily in the areas of products liability, insurance defense and commercial litigation. Matt also has experience in oil & gas royalty disputes, employment contracts, securities litigation, and appeals to various state and federal courts. He is licensed to practice in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Michigan. He has represented various clients in cases across the country. Matt frequently lectures at CLE’s on depositions and other discovery matters.

Matt lives in Olathe, Kansas with his wife, Traci, and their three children (two of whom he actually likes).

Michael H. Rapp, Stecklein & Rapp Chartered

Michael is a licensed attorney in the state of Kansas and Missouri. He is a member of the American Bar Association, Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association, Wyandotte County Bar Association, as well as the National Association of Consumer Advocates. Since graduating law school, Michael has focused his practice exclusively on Consumer Law with a concentration on Fair Debt Collection Practices (FDCPA), Credit Reporting (FCRA) and Telephone Consumer Protection (TCPA).
Michael regularly gives talks around the Kansas City area to community groups on the topics of Debt and Credit and blogs about FDCPA stories of interest providing short, good-to-know tips for those interested in keeping their finger on the pulse of consumer protection law.

Michael Rapp graduated from UMKC School of Law, where he served as Research Administrator for Friedman on Leases and was awarded the Sanford B. Ladd Award for his exceptional achievement in Real Estate Law. Prior to attending law school, Michael served his country, was decorated, and honorably discharged from the United States Air Force.
