

WHO'S YOUR FRAUDSTER?

by Kelly Paxton

TOPIC

Who is the typical embezzler? What are the red flags? Are you aware that most embezzlements are not detected by your accountant or auditor? In this presentation, audience members will come away with the cold, hard facts about embezzlement today. They will also learn about how best to protect their organization from fraud.

TAKEAWAYS

Attend Who's Your Fraudster and learn:

- How a fraudster may be a long-term trusted employee
- Trust is not an internal control
- Tips are your friend
- Opportunity is the only part of the Fraud Triangle you can control for
- What to watch out for, aka red flags
- And more...

SPEAKER

Kelly Paxton is a nationally recognized expert in fraud. While working as a federal agent she was used to dealing with the typical "bad" guys. But eventually she found herself investigating regular people who you never would have thought had broken the law. She has investigated hundreds of cases ranging from money laundering to conflict of interest to embezzlement. Her hands-on investigative experience for the government and private sector, along with research into criminal behavior and investigating for both the prosecution and defense, provides real-life, practical information.

You can learn more at: kellypaxton.com or pinkcollarcrime.com.