

Missionary Highlight: Michelle Clark

Dear Keyport Bible Church,

Thank you for your love and care each month. God has been faithful through each thing we face.

Awema has finished her second semester at school. She has been learning to read and spell words after she signs them. She is asking to go visit her mother, brother, and baby sister during the break. I need wisdom to know what to do; please pray for me.

Doris took her final exams last week and has applied to be an intern at Crista Camps this summer. Please pray she is accepted.

We continue to have the seniors Bible class each Tuesday afternoon, and Joyce is doing a lovely job teaching. They are slowly learning how to pray.

I seem to be supervising all three rings of the circus around here. I have come down with a strange rash that feels like bees are stinging me. During the day I stay busy, but nights can be frightening. Please pray that we can figure out what is causing it. I had an IV shot today, and will have another one tomorrow. The rash has gone from the back of my neck to the front and on my face and down my arms.

Fyness, a little lady with skin issues is doing much better. We are giving her food and ensuring she gets to her doctors appointments.

I took another young lady in a lot of pain to the hospital, and she is improving as well.

Each week has enough challenges of its own, but God always gives strength, joy, and wisdom.

Love to you all,

Michelle Clark
