Missionary Highlight: Bob & Katherine Rodgers

The Lord blessed us recently with a trip to Ireland the middle of April, which meant we missed Walt McConnell's 100th Birthday celebration.

Katherine and her four sisters have been saving money for some years for a "Sisters Trip," and long story short, they ended up in Ireland for 4 days. Through the generosity of our children (they helped with my ticket and some expenses) I could join Katherine afterward for 10 days.

While we were blessed with the sights of the Emerald Isle, we were also blessed to attend a couple of Baptist church plants begun by Americans.

We returned home to head on to Las Vegas and Pahrump, NV to survey the potential for a replant of the Las Vegas Bible Church, and to minister at Heritage Bible Church, formerly a church plant of N.I.C.E. begun as Living Waters Bible Church many years ago.

We are busy planning, organizing, and raising funds for our N.I.C.E. 60th Anniversary Celebration, September 24-26th in Yakima, Washington. Added to this is trying to find shepherds for about eight churches.

Prayer Requests

1. One of our N.I.C.E. Missionaries struggling in their marriage.
2. Two young families in the application process, and seeking ministry opportunities.
3. Wisdom and funds for the 60th Anniversary in September. Our goal is to bring as many of our N.I.C.E. Family as we can to the event without any expense to them.
4. Churches looking for pastors to lead them.
5. Mature couple to be church planters for the Las Vegas Bible Church replant.
