

Missionary Highlight: Daisy & Violet Godwin

Daisy and Violet Godwin are retired missionaries (Child Evangelism Fellowship, 36 years) supported by our church. Following their retirement, they taught AWANA for a further 20 years, and served in VBS programs for many of those years. In more recent years, they have served by holding regular prayer meetings at their home, and greeting at their church. They currently attend and serve as they are able at Faith Community Bible Church near their home in Bremerton.

At the beginning of April this year, Daisy took a fall, and has been in a nursing facility. She has been very confused, and workers have not been able to get her up and walking. Violet is very concerned about her, and has asked for our prayers. In particular, she asked for our prayers for her own wisdom, and for Daisy's recovery, both mental and physical.

Please keep these dear ladies in your prayers, that the Lord might enable them to continue to serve Him faithfully, even in old age and physical weakness. Pray that He may comfort them in and relieve them of their ailments according to His good pleasure and for His glory. Praise God for the example of their steadfastness in the faith, and for the work that our Lord has done through them.
