

Missionary Highlight: Bob & Katherine Rodgers

Dear Friends at KBC,

What a wonderful privilege God has give the two of us to partner with individuals and churches like Keyport Bible Church in reaching communities throughout the Northwest with the Gospel. Since 1982, we have been serving with Northwest Independent Church Extension in a variety of roles as Missionary Pastor (serving in three pastorates), Field Director of Washington and Alaska, and Executive Director for almost 9 years.

Our ministry entails some administrative duties in our home office in Edgewood, WA. Some of these duties include oversight of the budget, answering emails, working through goals and strategies for church planting, pastoral placement, managing the website, and preparation for teaching and preaching.

We are also on the road visiting supporting IFCA churches and our missionaries throughout the Northwest. We average around 25-30,000 miles a year on the road, not including commuter miles to the Office. We are in our home church, Faith Bible, about once every 4-5 weeks where Bob serves as the Chairman of the Elders. Katherine enjoys the opportunities to speak at various ladies' events while Bob fills the pulpit frequently through our travels. We troubleshoot in churches where there are difficulties, and counsel missionary pastors as they seek direction. We visit numerous Bible Schools/Colleges to promote the Mission and recruit. Bob also gives oversight to placing pastors in churches. He is also working with a group of men to establish Bridge4Growth, a ministry designed to build godly character qualities in our leaders, to enhance ministry skills, to strengthen local churches to be healthy and vibrant, and to produce a mentoring ministry for the next generation.

Of late we have been promoting and working on the details for the NICE 60th Anniversary which will be held in Yakima, Washington at the end of September. This will be a great time of celebrating the faithfulness of God through messages, reflections, and fellowship.

Thank you again, Keyport Bible Church Friends, for your faithful prayers and support. May God richly bless you for His glory.

His servants for eternity,

Bob & Katherine Rodgers
