24th Pastoral Care Conference:

Once again, the yearly CGM (Christian Growth Ministries) Pastoral Care Conference was fully packed! A total of 253 pastors, Christian workers, and Bible school students, coming from different provinces came.

Three American speakers came to share messages. Pastor McConaughy of Lynnwood, WA, spoke on the authority, reliability, necessity, and sufficiency of the Word of God. Pastor Barbouletos of Yakima, WA, shared messages on Biblical counseling with practical and Biblical applications. Pastor Shields of Damascus, OR, centered his messages on the theme of The Church: All to the Glory of God. A Filipino pastor, Ronel Rubica, lead and shared the morning devotional messages.

On the final day of the conference, a group of first-time delegates expressed their appreciation to CGM for the said pastoral conference. They specifically mentioned the encouraging biblical teachings, the accommodating and relaxing environment, and most of all, the opportunity to meet and be encouraged by other pastors and workers.

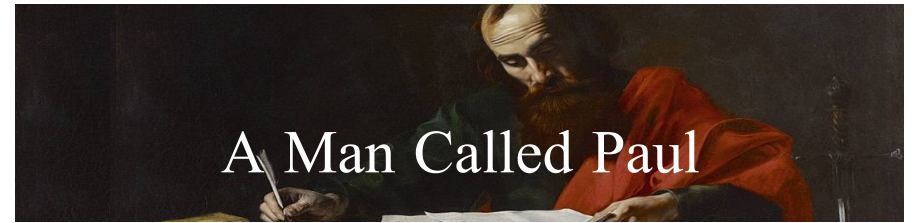

Even as the pastoral care conference came to a close, we at CGM will begin to plan for next year's conference - praying and anticipating God's leading and provision. For we know that whatever has been accomplished, it is due to His working.

This year's conference was made possible in cooperation with Mr. Doug Nichols - Global Advocate for Needy Philippine Children and Prisoners, serving with Commission to Every Nation (CTEN).
