Developer seeks approval for Beach Renourishment Project

On March 8th, the Town of Kiawah Island was notified that Kiawah Partners had applied to South Carolina DHEC-OCRM for a General Permit for dune construction, sand fencing and dune revegetation. This proposed activity would be conducted by Kiawah Partners on their property in an area extending from just east of Beachwalker Park to Captain Sams split. The project would use sand excavated from a nearby construction site on Kiawah that would otherwise be transported off the island. This application only relates to dune reconstruction proximate to existing dunes and does not encompass any other development activity.

For this project to move forward, OCRM must approve a permit for the project and the Town planning department must approve and issue a zoning permit. The Town's permit application review is coordinated by the Town's planning staff and is guided by Town ordinances and the Town's Beach Management Plan.

Since this project impacts the island's beach and dunes, consideration of the permit will incorporate input from the Town's environmental staff and independent beach consultant. This will ensure that requirements affecting protected wildlife, public safety, site restoration and preferred dune restoration methods are established. The relevant ordinances and the Beach Management Plan are available on the Town's website.

Inquiries about the Town's permitting process can be directed to Town Administrator Stephanie Tillerson. Inquiries regarding the OCRM permitting process should be directly to that agency.
