Sports News: B & E

Basketball season opener tomorrow!

Tomorrow night marks the opening of the new season for the roundballers at F & M. This season is provided as part of the F & M intramural program. Hopefully we can get some revenge on surrounding seminaries for the football season, I mean hopefully we shall be able to play some of the surrounding seminaries for fun and fellowship.

The talent on our campus for this year is abundant and we look forward to a real winning season, provided we don't lose.

About half of last years' team is back, unfortunately the half without talent. However with the new recruits we shall have an excellent young team, rebuilding as they always say. Unlike football, we always seem to win a few basketball games. In the past, the .500 figure shows up a lot. Not this year though for we shall have excellent chances.

The schedule: Clip and save it.

Wed. Nov. 16	9 PM	court 3
Mon. Nov. 21	9 PM	court 1
Thurs. Dec 1	8 PM	court 1

There will also be 3 games in the next semester.

Bowling at Leisure Lanes

The bowling activity has been sparse this semester, but spirited. Come on out and have a ball (bowling ball).

The standings:

	games	pins	avg.
Druckenmiller	6	939	156.5
A. Mann	15	2311	154.07
Doc Englert	18	2611	145.06
G. Sadler	9	1191	132.33
T. Frey	3	374	124.67

The high series and games for the year are 518 and 207 by A. Mann. Previously Druckenmiller, 504, 202.

SPIRITUALITY

The question of making LTS a spiritual campus has once again come up for discussion. It is my opinion that more varied chapel services, more activities on campus is not the answer.

Spirituality is a discipline of the soul. It requires patience and solitude. Spirituality should grow out of each individual soul. Setting aside a quiet time (if you can find a place on this campus) for the practice of Bible reading and prayer. There are numerous books supplied recently through the Spiritual Development Fund which give instructions on the art of meditation prayers. I found a book on Russian mysticism which gives excellent instructions for the use of the Jesus prayer.

Spirituality will grow at LTS when the fruits of a devout prayer life spill over into our normal rat race around here and turn our value system upside down. Has any one found a quiet place on this campus where I can go and meditate? Please don't suggest Richard's Hall unless you mean around 5 A.M.

Very well put.
