CELEBRATE HISPANIC EMPHASIS WEEK

Members of the Lancaster Seminary community are invited to participate in the celebration of Hispanic Emphasis Week. Programs involve the Seminary, as well as the wider Lancaster City community.

Wednesday, March 23 - Service of Word and Sacrament, Santee Chapel, 11:10 a.m., Dr. Fran Ringer, emeritus professor of theology and ethics at Lancaster Seminary, is chapel leader. Tito Cevallos and his band will provide special music, and the cross-cultural group which recently visited Central America will assist with the service.

Thursday, March 24 - Community Hour, 11:10 a.m., Mayer Commons, "Rhythms of Life and Your Worship: The Role of Liturgy Built from Everyday Events," will be presented by Mr. Cevallos.

Sunday, March 27 - 11:00 a.m. worship at El Redentor United Methodist Church, Lancaster. 6:00 p.m. worship at First Assemblies of God, Lancaster.

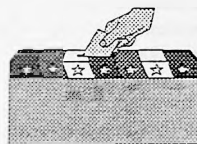

COOK LECTURE COMING UP

"A Sacred Trust: The Public Role of Religious Buildings" is the title of the 1994 Cook Lecture to be presented in Santee Chapel, Thursday, April 7, at 7:30 p.m. Robert Jaeger of Partners for Sacred Places in Philadelphia will discuss the historical and architectural roots of the Lark Building. Professor Rochelle Stackhouse, adjunct instructor in Worship and Preaching at Lancaster, will comment on the liturgical implications of the design of Santee Chapel, including its relation to Mercersburg liturgical theology. The two will offer responses to each other and to questions from those attending. The lecture is open to our community and the public without cost.

WACL UPDATE

The Worship and Community Life Committee has been reviewing the Seminary's policy on sexual assault. As a result of its work, the committee plans to have a brochure outlining procedures for victims of sexual assault in mailboxes soon.

VOTE NOW!

Have you remembered to vote for next year's Seminarian Community Council officers? If not, please do so before Friday, March 25, 5:00 p.m. Voting is done in Shirley Wallace's office in the Library. As part of the Seminary community, your opinion counts, so please participate!!

STUDENT/STAFF LIBRARY HOURS

The Library will close for the Easter Holiday on Wednesday, March 30, at 4:00 p.m. and will re-open Monday, April 4th, at 8:30 a.m. You may take out reserve books after 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Books that are due on Friday will be due on Monday instead. Have a great holiday!

COMMENCEMENT PRIZES TO BE AWARDED MAY 4

May 4th has been designated as the day on which commencement prizes and other awards will be presented at Lancaster Seminary. A service of Word and Sacrament at 11:10 a.m. in Santee Chapel, with Anabel Proffitt celebrating the Eucharist and preaching, will bring the academic year to a close and "send forth" those who will begin new chapters in their lives and ministries.

Following Chapel, everyone is welcome to come to the Refectory for lunch, either purchased there or brown bag. Immediately following lunch, at about 1:00 p.m., we will begin the proceedings by presenting the Commencement prizes and academic awards. In addition, there will be some "fun" presentations to various persons within the community (this includes faculty, staff and students!). The senior skit will also be presented during this time.

This is a Seminary community event, so all faculty, staff and students are encouraged to participate. Prize recipients will be notified prior to May 4 and are invited to bring their families and loved ones to share in this special time. Everyone is asked to bring a "pot luck dessert" to add to the festivities. There will be a sign-up sheet on the easel near the mailboxes for those intending to purchase the Refectory offering and to indicate what pot luck dessert you will bring. Mark this date in red on your calendar as an event not to be missed!

MENTORING PROGRAM

Following the Community Hour in which Rev. Cheryl Moore addressed "Issues in Ministry--the First Year in the Parish," several students responded with more questions and more concerns. "Could we do another?" they asked. And so, in the hope of going a little further and digging a little deeper, another panel (Call it "More, Evermore, Issues in Ministry...") has been formed. Again the focus will be on the first year out of seminary. Rev. Paul Hetrich, Rev. Maryann Ronan-Lamson and Rev. Jacqueline Sanders have agreed to serve as panelists. All have expressed a particular interest in the mentor relationship, and all have expressed a particular interest in the sharing of stories. Bring your questions, your concerns, your stories, yourselves and your bag lunch...Wednesday, April 6 (in Hafer Center after Wednesday worship). All are invited...in the spirit of mentoring: what we learn from each other, we might not have to learn from our own mistakes. For more information, please contact Liz Bell.

YOUTH EVENT SET

"For the Sake of a Call..."

Kaleidoscopes, a special event for high school youth, has been set by the Admissions Department for Saturday, April 9. The program explores such issues as...what is a vocation; how can Christian faith be part of the high school, college and job experience. A panel with representatives from the church, high school and college communities is one of the several activities planned for the day. The event, the initial Kaleidoscope program, is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Continental breakfast and lunch are included. Registration deadline is March 28. If you know youth in 9th, 10th and 11th grades who would be interested, please see Kecia McMillian, Office of Admissions.

ALUMNI/AE & COMMENCEMENT SCHEDULE CORRECTIONS

Two changes in the Alumni/ae & Commencement activities, listed in last week's Seminary News: Graduates are guests of the Alumni/ae Association at the luncheon on Friday, May 13, at 12:30 p.m., Church of the Apostles. The Alumni/ae Day Social Hour begins at 4:30 p.m. on Friday, May 13, on the lawn in front of the Lark Building, while the banquet is at 6:00 p.m. at the Hotel Brunswick.

ETHIC FOR EARTH CONFERENCE AT MILLERSVILLE UNIVERSITY

"An Ethic for the Earth: Caring for the Planet in the Next Generation," is the title of a conference to be held at Millersville University on Saturday, April 23. The registration fee for the workshop ($10.00) will be waived for Lancaster Seminary students. The luncheon fee is $10.00, or participants can "brown bag." Keynote speaker is Dr. Rosemary Radford Ruether, Georgia Harkness Professor of Applied Theology at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Evanston, Illinois. Her subject will be "Religion, Ecology and Women in Global Perspective." Introducer for Dr. Ruether will be Lancaster Professor Beth Huwiler, while seminarian Ann Few is coordinator of the event. Conference registration is required. Deadline for early registration is April 5. Make checks payable to Millersville University, and send with registration form to "An Ethic for the Earth," United Campus Ministry, Millersville University, P.O. Box 1002, Millersville, PA 17551-0302. Questions? See Ann Few or call United Campus Ministry, 717-872-3355.

NEWS ON BETH MALLOZZI'S FAMILY

Beth Mallozzi's parents, John and Verlie Anne Skillman, will be leaving as missionaries to Thailand in May 1994, serving with the United Board for Christian Higher Education. They will be teaching at Tayap University, located in Chiang Mai (Northwest Thailand). Verlie Anne will be teaching in the nursing college. Her focus will be in psychiatric nursing, AIDS (which is a big problem there) and family therapy. John will be teaching at the liberal arts college. His focus will be on Japan and Asian affairs.

SPRING CONCERT

The McCaskey High School Vocal Ensemble will present a spring concert, Saturday, April 2, 8:00 p.m., at the Fulton Opera House. The ensemble is raising money for a trip to England and a chance to appear before the Queen. Tickets are $20.00 per person. For more information, call 392-1935.

LARK BUILDING DISPLAY

Please take time to see the display on the Lark Building in the Library. The display will be taken down at the end of March.

WOMEN'S CLERGY GROUP MEETS

The Women's Clergy-Seminarian Mentor Group will meet on Friday, March 25, at 1:00 p.m., St. Paul's UCC, Lionville, to discuss issues of women in ministry. If you need directions, contact Liz Bell or Ann Kemper (in the Library).
