THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST (EVANGELICAL & REFORMED)
Volume VII    Academic Year 1957-58    June 3, 1958    Number 14

Senior Class Banquet

Before embarking upon their separate voyages of Christian endeavor the members of the Senior Class celebrated a last supper together at The Dutch Town and Country Inn last Wednesday night. After enjoying a turkey dinner with all the trimmings, the class heard a few words from their guest of honor, Dean Dunn, who was introduced by the President of the class, Bruce Wickkiser. The Dean reminded the seniors that they would be hearing him at the Baccalaureate Service so he postponed words of farewell until then, and proceeded to confer the degree of P.H.T. upon the wives of the seniors, beginning with Mrs. Salome "Carson."

Following the conferring of the PHT degrees (Putting Hubbie Through), President Wickkiser requested the following bachelors of the class to introduce their guests: Fox, Kern, Ely and Gast. We know now that Carson's "date" arrived twelve hours late, but where were Wickkiser's and Rumley's guests?

Jack Aregood, who would have graduated with this year's senior class, but who decided to take a clinical year, told the class about his experiences in Louisiana. Jack currently is assisting at First Church, New Orleans.

Dear All Seminararians:

A Japanese student who has been called Yasu, Yasuo, Yashuo, Oikawa-san, Mr. Oikawa, and even Joshua Okinawa — is leaving this home, with fathomless gratitude for the friendship which all you Seminararians have warmly shared with him ever since he came here. He is a human being but sometimes has been non-being so far as the characteristic of human being is in using language as a way of communication. But, the non-being has experienced to be New-being in the fellowship of the inheritors of the Pentecost which is the basic event to write his thesis for B.D. degree. — Perhaps Human Being degree.

He is leaving for another spot on the earth, cherishing your brotherly love with his name "Yasu" so has he been called here. Sayonara!

- Jasuo Oikawa

Dean Notes:

CONGRATULATIONS to the 29 men and 1 woman who are graduating this year. The number includes Joe Heiney and Paul Miller who have now completed their work, also Rev. John Charles Heater, pastor of the Oak Lane Church near Philadelphia, who graduated in the class of 1932 with the certificate, but has now completed his college work at Temple and will receive the B.D. degree.

BEST WISHES to the graduates as they go out to take up or continue the work of the Lord in their respective fields, or to continue their preparation in graduate schools! Also to the members of the other two classes wherever they may be working through the summer months.

A LETTER has just come from Hal and Ann Schoup, in which, of course their little Sandra joins to the extent that she can at her tender age. The letter enclosed a check for $10 for the George Rankin Memorial Fund. Ann has been appointed principal of the Baghdad School for Girls and Hal its business manager for a year at least, due to an emergency caused by the sudden retirement of the former principal. The letter begins with congratulations to this year's Senior Class and closes with these words addressed to the thoughts of other students: "You have no idea how thrilled we would be to hear from someone saying that they were considering work in Iraq." The two-page letter will be posted at one of the bulletin boards in the main hall.

ANYONE WHO HAS NOT yet left his or her summer address at the office will please do so. We want to know how to get in touch with you during the summer recess.

ANY WORK NOT "IN" by the time you read these lines (we hope there will be none!) should be handed in as soon as possible. Grades for the term are subject to reduction in proportion to the degree of tardiness. After five weeks from Friday, May 30, the due date, the course will be regarded as "not passed."

STUDENTS ARE AGAIN urged to see that all library books and any that may have been loaned by members of the faculty are returned before departure for the summer.

And so, AUFWIEDERSEHEN for the school year, 1957-58!
