"If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?"..1 John 4:20

Dr. Dunn suggests the following Books: -

"Eastward", by Warburton.

(a fascinating story of the life of Adoniram Judson)

"The Prophets Tell Their Own Story", by Leslie.

(a first-person presentation of the missions and the messages of the Old Testament prophets)

"221 B", edited by Vincent Starret.

(a series of sketches to delight the Sherlock Holmes addict)

"Churches And Sects Of Christendom", by Nave.

(a new and quite useful survey of the divisions of "the mighty army")

- A Description Of A Parson -

"And I always came to his church
Before my Sally was dead,
And heard him a humming away
Like a buzzard-cock over my head;
And I never knew what he meant,
But I thought he had something to say,
And I thought he said what he ought to have said and I came away."

from Tennyson's "Northern Farmer".

When deeds and words disagree we are constantly stunned to find that the words are forgotten and the deeds are remembered. Every parent, teacher, and public official knows this from experience. We often find some younger or weaker person trying to follow in our foot-steps. Jesus recognized the power of example. He said, "The Son of Man came - to minister" - true - but he also girded himself with a towel and washed the feet of his disciples. That meant more to those men and to the world today than many sermons. The greatest sermon is a life well lived. So we are to let our light shine, "that men may see our good works and glorify our Heavenly Father". Let us always remember that if we need God, God also needs us. Each of us has his own personality and thus his unique contribution to make. It is the deed that counts for most - not the word.

"MANY THANKS!"

Contributions have been received from the Rev. Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner, of Heidelberg Church in Philadelphia - and from Dr. David Dunn. Their gifts will help defray the costs of this publication. Thanks cannot express our gratitude.

THRU THE

KEY HOLE

Gail Holt supplied the pulpit of Christ's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Hagerstown, Md. --- Friday morning when "Dutch" Rissinger began preaching he started his sermon by saying, "Did you ever look at a leaf?" at which time everyone in the class lifted up a leaf and examined it very carefully. --- The girls of St. Stephen's Y.P. Fellowship of Reading sent their personal best wishes to Davis, Dilliard, and Holt thru Musser who visited them last weekend. --- While talking about thrills the other day, Dr. Herman said that he had gotten some of his greatest thrills in life from seeing Charlie Chaplin. When his new picture comes to town we are to let him know, and he told us we would have a day off to see it. --- Davis, our boy-preacher, doesn't know his Bible as well as we thought. In worship class while reading Psalm 29:6 he read "He maketh Lebanon and Sirion like a young 'acorn'". --- We are all very grateful to Dr. Frantz for his scholarly review of Dr. Grant's book "The Gospel of the Kingdom". --- A soap box has been procured for Wimer so that he can continue his orations in the hall during the evenings. --- Dr. Harner fired another shot in the Snodgrass-Harner feud when he invited Middlers and Seniors even Snodgrass to sit in on the special mission classes. --- Social activity among professors and students hit a new high when the Senior Class made a new step. After having a gift of a cake, they purchased ice cream, and visited Dr. Bair at his home October 9th. The table was set by Dr. Bair and several assistants. Feather uninformed as to the ways and the workings of the domestically inclined members of the class, was compelled by social pressure to sit quietly in the living room until the call was given. Dr. Bair, your hospitality was sincerely appreciated!
