Volume VIII * Academic Year 1958-59 * October 9, 1958 Number 1

CHANCEL PLAYERS TO PERFORM FOR NATIONAL COUNCIL

The Chancel Players will produce their first production of the year at Zion Lutheran Church in York, Pa., on Tuesday evening, October 21st. The production is part of the National Conference of the Division of Town and Country Churches of National Council of Churches. The production will be a reader's theater presentation of a script written by George A. Hazen on the history of the Rural Church Movement in America. This presentation marks the observance of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Country Life Commission which was so influential in the development of a philosophy of rural living and the Rural Church. The cast of the production will begin readings this week.

DEAN NOTES

Volume 1, Number 1 of TOWER ECHOES, published in the interests of our Seminary and sent to the alumni and friends of the school, has made its first appearance as a separate issue, i.e. apart from "THEOLOGY AND LIFE." It may be seen on the bulletin board.

We welcome PROFESSORS JOHN B. NOSS and CHARLES D. SPOTTS of Franklin and Marshall College to our side of College Avenue. Their respective courses on "Christianity and World Religions" and "Church and Community" are being very much appreciated.

REV. GEORGE KRAMER has been moved from the Lancaster Avenue Methodist Church, Lancaster to Philadelphia, and Rev. FRED C. SEYFERT from the Denver E.U.B. Church to Northampton, Pa. This reduces our Fall Term enrollment by three. The present figures are: Seniors: 32; Middlers: 25; Juniors: 29; M.R.E.: 3 and Unclassified: 4. Total: 93.

Greetings to three new members of the Seminary family who arrived during the early days of the term:

TIMMIE LOU DOBEY, born to MR. AND MRS. REX DOBEY in Lexington, N.C. on Wednesday, September 24.

JEFFREY LYNN WEAVER, born to MR. AND MRS. STACY WEAVER in Lancaster on that same day.

LLOYD ROBERT BATZLER, born to DR. AND MRS. RICHARD BATZLER in Lancaster on Saturday, October 4.

The Faculty held its Annual Fall Retreat at Meadow Hills on Wednesday, October 8. Each member presented a brief paper for discussion on the bearing of his Department on the life and work of the ministry.

The first lecture on marriage in the three-year cycle sponsored by the Lancaster Committee for Planned Parenthood will be given by Psychiatrist Harold Wynn, Thursday night, October 9 at 7:30 in Room 2. Students and their wives are urged to attend. These lectures will be held on the following Thursday nights through November 20, excepting November 6 (Convocation).

The chapel services (Tuesday through Friday) now begin at 9:55 and end at 10:10, that there may be ample time for the mid-morning break for coffee, tea and fellowship in the refectory. This should help toward regular and on-time chapel attendance as well as prompt starting of the 10:30 class hour.

SENIORS, note first fall deadline for B.D. theses: October 15, for consultation with responsible professor on procedure and progress.

The first fellowship dinner of the school year will be held in the refectory, Wednesday, October 15 at 5:30. Those not on the list of refectory diners will be given an opportunity to sign up at $1.15 per plate. Following the dinner we will move to Room 2 in the Main Building where Dr. L. Richard Batzler will speak on "Understanding Russia, a Christian Responsibility".
