GENERAL CONFERENCE ACTIVITY PACKET

OCTOBER 3-4, 2015

Today General Conference is broadcast to millions, while the first General Conference was attended by just 27 people! Can you find the hidden objects in this picture of an early General Conference?

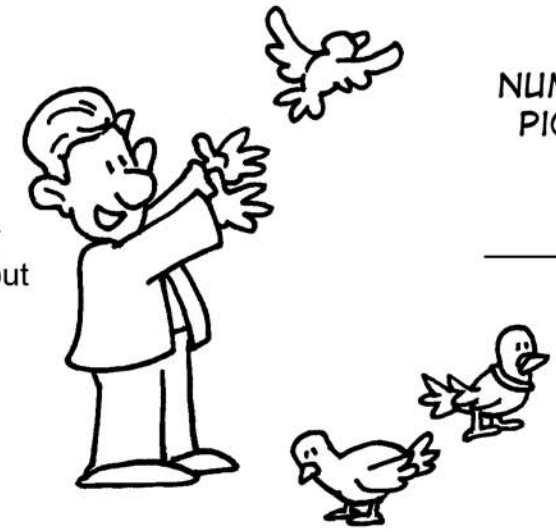

CONFERENCE FUN

The Saints have gathered for millennia to listen to the words of the prophets. Can you find six differences in these pictures of King Benjamin's address?

As a youth, President Monson enjoyed raising pigeons. Count the number of pigeons hidden throughout this General Conference Activity Packet.

CONFERENCE FUN

Can you match the missing pieces to this picture of the world-famous Mormon Tabernacle Choir?

Can you find the path that leads through the Conference Center podium?

IN MEMORIAM

For the first time in 45 years, General Conference will not feature counsel from President Boyd K. Packer, Elder L. Tom Perry, or Elder Richard G. Scott.

Boyd K. Packer
1924-2015

L. Tom Perry
1922-2015

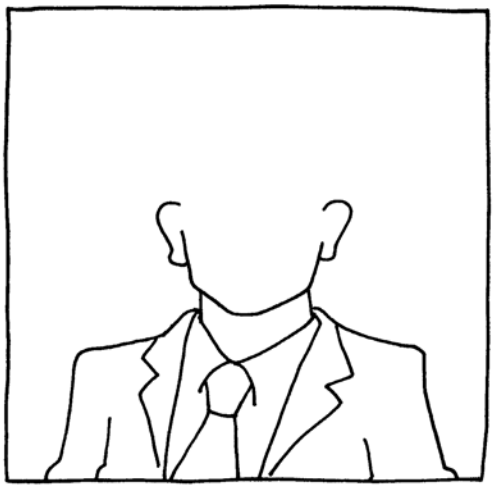

Richard G. Scott
1928-2015

Among his many talents, President Packer enjoyed sculpting birds. Can you identify the two sculptures that are exactly the same?

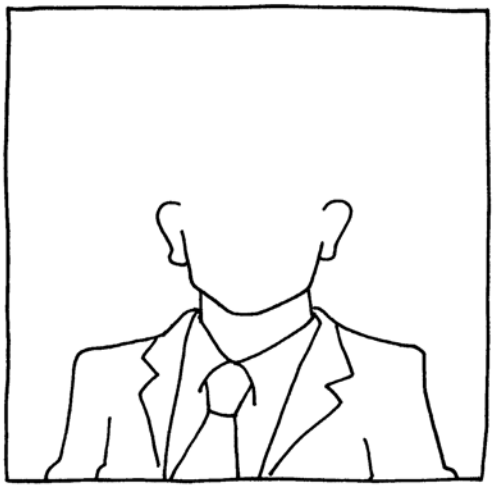

NEW APOSTLES

On Saturday morning, we'll have the opportunity to sustain the three newest Apostles, the 108th, 109th, and 110th of this dispensation. Use this space to write down their names and finish the picture below of what they look like.

CONFERENCE TIC-TAC-TOE!

Play tic-tac-toe by listening and marking every topic you hear during General Conferences with alternatively an “X” or an “O” to see if you can get three squares marked “X” or “O” in a row.
If you’re feeling extra ambitious, play both boards at once.

PROPHETS AT THEIR PULPITS

Prophets throughout the years have shared their message from a number of different locations. Match the prophet to his pulpit and his message to the world.

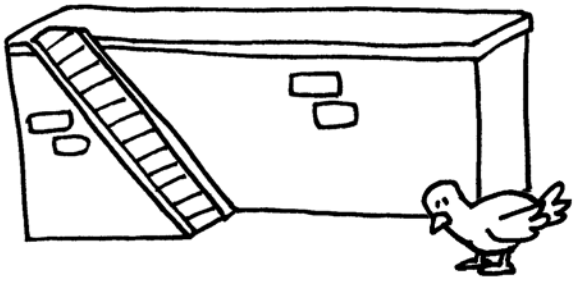

Thomas S. Monson

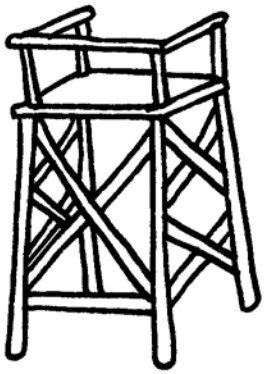

Samuel the Lamanite

King Benjamin

[F]or this intent have I come up upon the walls of this city... that ye might know of the coming of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Father of heaven and of earth, the Creator of all things from the beginning; and that ye might know of the signs of his coming, to the intent that ye might believe on his name.

And behold, I tell you these things that ye may learn wisdom; that ye may learn that when ye are in the service of your fellow beings ye are only in the service of your God.

[C]ommunication with our Father in Heaven—including our prayers to Him and His inspiration to us—is necessary in order for us to weather the storms and trials of life. The Lord invites us, “Draw near unto me and I will draw near unto you; seek me diligently and ye shall find me.”
