Session One:

Rejoice! The Bible is a Love Letter Addressed to You

1. Elyse said that only 20% of women who believe that the Bible is God's Word actually read it 4 or more times a week. What keeps you from reading the Bible?

2. Many Christians feel confused when reading the stories and rituals in the Old Testament. What makes the Old Testament difficult for you? Why would God preserve difficult stories?

3. Elyse spoke about 4 bad methods of Bible reading:

- 1) Quid Pro Quo
- 2) What Would the Heroes Do?
- 3) The Magic 8 Ball
- 4) Headlines

Do you find yourself reading the Bible in one (or more) of these ways? How does that affect your view of God's Word?

4. Elyse talked about reading the Bible as a love letter. How does that change your view of the Bible?

Session Two:

God's Eternal Love for Women

1. Many people think the Bible is toxic for women. Have you ever wondered if the Lord is a misogynist? Did this session make you see God in a different way? How so? Be specific.

2. There are many examples of Jesus loving and welcoming women even before his birth in Bethlehem. Which of the examples was most impactful for you? Why do you think that is?

3. Why is it important to note that Mary Magdalene was the first person Jesus spoke to after his resurrection? What does that mean for women today? What does it mean for you individually?

4. Why is it important to note that Jesus' Aunt Mary and Mary of Bethany were invited into Jesus' school of theology? How would it change your Bible study methods if you really believed that God wants you involved as much as he wants the men?

Session Three:

Every Story is About Jesus

1. In Luke 24, Jesus held the first Sunday school class. Who were the participants and what did he teach them? Why were they sad? How do we fall into the same trap?

2. How would your study of the Old Testament in particular change if you knew you were searching for a long lost love letter?

3. Jesus said that Moses wrote about him. What did Jesus mean? Can you find any examples of Moses writing about Jesus in the Bible?

4. Why is it important to see Jesus throughout the entire Old Testament? How does that change your perspective on the entire story of the Bible?
