MARCH 2018 • OH, THE PLACES WE'LL GO!

Oh, the Places We Will Go!

With this month being Dr. Seuss's Birthday, it only seems right that we celebrate one of his greatest books, "Oh, the Places You'll Go!" Please join us this month as we travel on all kinds of adventures and learn all about different places.

Take an outing to Felt's Field to learn all about planes and enjoy a tour which is complete with a tasty lunch at the Skyway Café. Then join us for an interesting visit to River City Modelers, where we will learn all about model trains from the local experts. Lastly, our Wednesday outings will consist of a trip to Dave Smith Motors to take a peak at all the new styles of vehicles they offer and then lunch at Coeur d' Alene's famous Crickets Restaurant.

If those outings sound exciting, then wait until you hear that our Spring Daycations will be kicking off this month with our first trip heading out to Palouse Falls. It's a great time of the year to visit the falls as the waterfalls will be a spectacular sight. Be sure to sign-up at the Front Desk, as space is limited.

This month, we will celebrate Saint Patrick's Day with special entertainment in our Bistro and a tasty menu of Irish favorites created by Chef Bret.

Speaking of celebrations, be sure to tell the grandkids about the Easter Egg Hunt and Brunch on Saturday, March 24! There will be 500 eggs hidden and a visit from the Easter Bunny!

This month is full of fun, all relating to travel, and it's up to you to decide on "Oh, the Places You'll Go!"

Gerrie found some tasty chocolate at Hallett's Chocolate Factory!

This group enjoyed their tour of Hallett's Chocolates and might have indulged in some tasty chocolates as well.

A group enjoyed a visit to Kalispel Golf and Country Club!

Vickie and Jeanette enjoyed our trip to Couer d' Alene for the Mac and Cheese and Beer Festival!

Jokes For Saint Patrick's Day

Why can't you iron four-leaf clovers?

Well, you don't want to press your luck.

Why do revelers wear shamrocks on St. Patrick's Day?

Because real rocks are way too heavy.

Knock, knock. (Who's there?) Irish. (Irish who?) Irish you a happy St. Patrick's Day, friend.

What's Irish and gets left out on the back porch all summer?

Paddy O'Furniture.

Knock, knock. (Who's there?) Pat. (Pat who?) Pat your shoes on so we can go celebrate St. Patrick's Day!

Do leprechauns get upset when you make fun of their size?

Yes, but only a little.

All About Dr. Seuss

On March 2, 1904, Theodor Geisel, better known to the world as Dr. Seuss, the author and illustrator of such beloved children's books as "The Cat in the Hat" and "Green Eggs and Ham," was born in Springfield, Mass. Geisel, who used his middle name (which was also his mother's maiden name) as his pen name, wrote 48 books – including some for adults – that have sold well over 200 million copies and have been translated into multiple languages. Dr. Seuss books are known for their whimsical rhymes and quirky characters, which have names like the Lorax and the Sneetches and live in places like Hooterville.

Geisel graduated from Dartmouth College, where he was editor of the school's humor magazine, and studied at Oxford University. There he met Helen Palmer, his first wife and the person who encouraged him to become a professional illustrator. Back in America, Geisel worked as a cartoonist for a variety of magazines and in advertising.

The first children's book that Geisel wrote and illustrated, "And to Think That I Saw It On Mulberry Street," was rejected by over two dozen publishers before making it into print in 1937. Geisel's first bestseller, "The Cat in the Hat," was published in 1957. The story of a mischievous cat in a tall striped hat came about after his publisher asked him to produce a book using 220 new-reader vocabulary words that could serve as an entertaining alternative to the school reading primers children found boring.

Other Dr. Seuss classics include "Yertle the Turtle," "If I Ran the Circus," "Fox in Socks" and "One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish."

Some Dr. Seuss books tackled serious themes. "The Butter Battle Book" (1984) was about the arms buildup and nuclear war threat during Ronald Reagan's presidency. "Lorax" (1971) dealt with the environment.

Many Dr. Seuss books have been adapted for television and film, including "How the Grinch Stole Christmas!" and "Horton Hears a Who!" In 1990, Geisel published a book for adults titled "Oh, the Places You'll Go" that became a hugely popular graduation gift for high school and college students.

Geisel, who lived and worked in an old observatory in La Jolla, Calif., known as "The Tower," died Sept. 24, 1991, at age 87.
