MONJA ANNOUNCED DAILY MPL VALUATION AND PRICING SERVICES AT LENDIT USA CONFERENCE

A fully automated pricing infrastructure allows MPL pricing with short turnaround

New York, NY, March 6, 2017 – MonJa announced today at the LendIt USA gathering of 5,000 fintech and lending executives in New York City, their daily MPL valuation services.

Institutional investors and investment managers have turned to MonJa to measure loan performance, manage risk, and provide investor reports since 2014. Now, investors have more options in portfolio valuation.

Previously available to select investors only, MonJa's valuation services offer a wide range of unique features for all customers, including:

- Fully automated infrastructure to project loan level cash flow and reprice loans daily
- Continuous model integration of platform data feed for estimating transition probabilities

"MonJa's Daily MPL Valuation Service is a perfect complement to MonJa's existing suite of analytical models and products," says James Wu, founder and CEO of MonJa. "Now fund managers don't need to wait 20 days after end of month to see how the portfolio has performed. This allows them to better position their portfolio and liquidity, while providing better portfolio visibility for their clients."
