RCN
AT LENDIT FINTECH USA 2018

A peer-to-peer global credit network protocol based on cosigned smart contracts and blockchain technology.

SAN FRANCISCO - April 9 - RCN announced today at LendIt Fintech USA, the world's leading event in financial services innovation, that it will showcase how global lending through peer-to-peer technology is possible using blockchain technology and cosigned smart contracts.

With billions of people all over the world excluded from traditional banking & financial services, Sebastian Serrano (CEO), will explain the company's successful history in Latin America since it was funded and how RCN can contribute to the world's economy by providing credit and financial inclusion through blockchain technology and cosigned smart contracts.

"We believe global democratic peer-to-peer lending and financial inclusion to be possible through blockchain technology. We have this unique opportunity to eliminate traditional market inefficiencies by connecting either banked or unbanked borrowers and lenders all over the world directly" stated David Garcia, RCN's managing director LendIt Fintech USA, a gathering of more than 6,000 industry professionals in San Francisco, showcases the leaders in innovation across financial services including the digital banking, fintech, blockchain and lending industries.
