

On October 2, 1930, the first broadcast of The Lutheran Hour radio program was aired with Dr. Walter A. Maier as Speaker. The Lutheran Layman's League, which had formed 13 years earlier, had a vision of spreading the Gospel message using the young technology of broadcast radio. For more than 80 years, the call of Christ has been carried around the world by radio waves to share the Good News.

With over one million listeners every week, The Lutheran Hour continues its legacy of bringing timely messages of Christ's love by using the most current and accessible platforms. The program airs on more than 1,800 North American stations every week.
