IMPLEMENTATION PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Good partnerships are based on trust.

Lockton has the experience required to work closely with your organization's management team to create processes and project plans that are clear and, most importantly, executable.

When you have a partner like Lockton, you can feel confident that your integration or implementation project will be handled effectively from inception to completion—freeing you to keep your focus where it belongs.

Lockton Can Help.

Lockton's proven project management methodology ensures successful solution delivery for your employees, processes, and technology. As your partner, Lockton will:

- ❖ Develop measurable project objectives that meet your requirements.
- ❖ Provide risk mitigation.
- ❖ Deliver quality assurance.
- ❖ Ensure your project is implemented on time and within budget.

Managing your technology implementation or integration project takes time and resources. Lockton's experts, supported by our proven planning methodology, will carry the load while you continue managing your company's operations and growth.

You Can Rely on Lockton

- ❖ To manage project planning, execution, control, and evaluation.
- ❖ To insist on the highest quality standards for your technology implementation.
- ❖ To manage the requirements gathering, issues/risk tracking, testing, and go-live processes.
- ❖ To facilitate the creating of a project-steering committee and facilitate weekly status meetings.
