

The air conditioning in the Universe of Energy building at EPCOT is powered by the solar panels on the roof.

That's why the narrator inside will say you're riding on sunshine."

The fire station at Magic Kingdom is station 71 in honor of the Magic Kingdom opening in 1971.

Did you know?

Rainwater never falls off of the "golf ball" in EPCOT because special gutters take it away into the lagoon nearby.

No birds in Future World

In the Future World section of EPCOT, you won't see birds because there are sounds being played to keep them away.

people can't hear it; only birds can!

Q: Why does the Emporium on Main St. in Magic Kingdom say it was established in 1901?

A: That's the year Walt Disney was born.

Did you know?

The King of Morocco was involved in making the Morocco section of EPCOT. In fact, no changes to that area can be made without his permission!

Rock N' Roller Coaster at Hollywood Studios was the first launching roller coaster to take you from 0 to 60 miles per hour in just 3 seconds!

CALLING THE BATS IN FOR DINNER

Disney trained the bats at Animal Kingdom to do something experts said they couldn't do - they trained the bats to come inside for dinner when a whistle is blown!

Question:
How many stone blocks were used to build Cinderella's Castle?

Answer:
None! It's made of steel so it can be strong enough for a hurricane.

The lighting in the Mexico building in EPCOT is always set to look like sunset because that's when friends and family gather in the plaza in Mexican culture.

