Affiant states that there is probable and reasonable cause to believe and affiant does believe that said property constitutes (check appropriate box or boxes):

- stolen or embezzled property;
- property or things used as the means of committing a crime;
- property or things in the possession of a person who intends to use it as a means of committing a crime;
- property or things in the possession of a person to whom it was delivered for the purpose of concealing it or preventing its discovery and which is intended to be used as a means of committing a crime;
- property or things consisting of evidence which tends to show that a crime has been committed or that a particular person has committed a crime.

Affiant has been an officer in the aforementioned agency for a period of 9 years and the information and observations continued herein were received and made in his capacity as an officer thereof.

On the 23rd day of June 20 18 at approximately 1730 a.m.  p.m. , affiant received information from/observed

Detective received information from LMPD metro complaint 254173. The complaint stated a black male named Anthony McClain is growing marijuana and has multiple bags of marijuana packaged for sale in the front bed room. Metro complaint also stated a white female named Holly was his girlfriend and owned the house.

Acting on the information received, affiant conducted the following independent investigation:

Detective conducted surveillance at the above location on October 5 around 1700 hrs. Detectives observed a plump female leave the porch of 1922 W Chestnut and enter the residence of 1920 W Chestnut St. A short time later a vehicle pulled up and parked. A Black male went to 1920 W Chestnut and was immediately let in the door by the same female. The male stayed approximately 10 minutes then left. Detective then approached the house to conduct a knock and talk. As Detectives approached and stepped onto the open porch, the smell of fresh marijuana could be smelled. As Affiant stepped in front of the main door the odor grew stronger and was obvious coming from within the house. Affiant knocked, and no one answered. Detective then left to conduct further investigation.

On October 22 detective conducted surveillance at the above location a gray Jaguar parked in front of the house and a black male got out and entered the residence. The Jaguar had a Indiana license plate of 555BO. Detective ran the license plate through NCIC and learned the registered owner was a Mario Daugherty,

On October 23 approximately 0530 hrs. detective approached the house and again was hit with a strong smell of fresh marijuana coming from within the house.

Based on the narcotics metro complaint, the witness of a short stay, the strong fresh smell of marijuana on separate occasions and detectives training and experience, Affiant believes there is illegal drugs being used/and or stored in this residence.

Affiant has reasonable and probable cause to believe that grounds exist for the issuance of a Search Warrant, based on the aforementioned facts, information and circumstances and prays that a Search Warrant be issued, that the property be seized, or any part thereof, and brought before any court and/or retained subject to order of said court.
