January 2022
Learning Opportunities

How Women Lead:

1. Our Bodies, Our Power: Abortion & Reproductive Health and Justice

US policies affecting women’s reproductive rights have substantially changed at both the federal and state levels. Research shows that reproductive rights are vital components to women’s socioeconomic well-being, empowerment, and overall health. The true economic security of a family is strongly connected to women's access to equal pay, paid time off from work to care for families, affordable childcare, and affordable reproductive health care, including birth control and abortion.

Jan 10, 2022, 8:30 AM – 10:00 AM PST
Cost is $50. Register here

2. How Women Lead Ecosystem: Get Involved!

Meet CEO Julie Abrams for a tour of our organization that highlights the many ways you can become involved in making measurable changes for women. From leadership development to investing to philanthropy, learn how to take advantage of all the opportunities our network offers to help you reach your goals.

JAN 11, 2022, 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM PST
Free information session. Register here

Project Sage 4.0:

The field of gender lens investing is growing. A new report by Wharton Social Impact and Catalyst at Large analyzes data from over 200 funds and shares key numbers and trends. Project Sage 4.0 is a global scan of gender lens private equity, venture capital, and private debt funds, and key findings on the current state of the field. This report includes data through June 2021. The authors are Suzanne Biegel, Maoz (Michael) Brown, and Sandi M. Hunt.

Access the report here
Equity in the Center resources:

Intersectional Allyship for Racial Justice: A Workshop for White Allies

What does it mean for white people to be effective allies to people of color in our work for racial equity and collective liberation? Whitney Parnell, executive director and co-founder of Service Never Sleeps (SNS), will lead an intensive, two-day fast-paced webinar series designed to explore how white folks use individual and collective areas of privilege to advance racial justice in an intersectional context. Using SNS’ CLAIM framework (Care, Learn, Act, Influence, Maintain), this workshop will explore what it means to adopt an allyship lifestyle as a white person. Please note that this workshop is only for individuals who identify as white.

This is a webinar training that takes place over 2 days. Session dates are offered January through June. Learn more here.

Other

Money and Meaning Podcast by SOCAP Global

RACE COUNTS

RACE COUNTS measures the overall performance, amount of racial disparity, and impact by population size of counties and cities in California. New data is to be posted very soon here.

Behave - Podcast series by Team Dynamics

A PODCAST ABOUT GOING TO WORK

The podcast BEHAVE asks the question, “So, what are YOU going to DO about that?” Hosted by Team Dynamics co-founders Alfonso Wenker and Trina Olson, BEHAVE takes an empowered approach, offering information, inspiration, and skill development. They are funny, tactical, and super clear about what it takes to behave - at work. https://www.teamdynamicsmn.com/season-1