Our fmCASES Editorial Board is growing! We have added new roles and are now taking applications for NEW Associate Editors.

- Love our cases?
- Eager to be more involved?
- Enjoy mentoring newer educators?
- Looking for an opportunity for scholarship?
- Want to join a team of your colleagues in the development of valuable teaching and learning tools?

(See flip side for the Associate Editor job description.)

If you are interested or would like to learn more, contact fmCASES Editor-in-Chief David Anthony (david_anthony@brown.edu) or Senior Course Director Shou Ling Leong (sleong@hmc.psu.edu).
fmCASES Associate Editor
Job Description

fmCASES Associate Editors are:

- Responsible for overseeing the editing of up to seven cases.
- Expected to attend fmCASES Editorial Board meetings (at STFM’s Medical Student Education Meeting and MedU’s Annual Meeting) and to participate in monthly fmCASES Editorial Board conference calls.
- Selected by majority vote of the fmCASES Editorial Board.

Primary Responsibilities

1. Ensuring that the cases in the Associate Editor’s section:
   - Remain appropriately aligned with the STFM National Clerkship Curriculum (maximizing coverage and minimizing redundancy of STFM curricular objectives)
   - Utilize effective computer-assisted instruction as defined by MedU
   - Are accurate and up-to-date
2. Directing updates to be made by each Case Reviewer (one per case)
3. Mentoring and contributing to the work of the Case Reviewers
4. Working with the MedU Editorial Staff to implement case updates and revisions
5. Providing input to the fmCASES Editorial Board on possible improvement and/or innovation within fmCASES
6. Assisting with recruitment of Associate Editors as needed
7. Serving as fmCASES ambassadors to STFM membership: developing and presenting workshops, conducting and presenting research, attending national meetings, etc.

Experience/Eligibility

- Must be an active member of STFM.
- Having served as an fmCASES Case Author or Reviewer is desirable.

Term

The period of service is two years, with two renewable terms at the discretion of the fmCASES Editor-in-Chief.