

Day 11

Transmission 28:44

Music: Daniel Schotsborg - Sun - HoloSound

This transmission of Light builds the bridge to the future timelines of your highest potential realities. Merging your personality's desires with your Divine Will brings a continuous co-creation into this current experience. Each day is a choice, an opportunity to align you with your purpose, your mission, your reason for being here at this time. The structures now activating in your personal matrix of Light support your ability to stay connected to Divine Will more effortlessly and effectively. Remember your personal power to co-create your reality.

The web of life created The songs of Light sung Within this time space matrix Her presence will be shown

For each and every person Within this fantasy Will awaken to the wisdom That everything will be

The creation of their visions Whatever thought forms they produce Will bring about their worldly plight Without prejudice to lose

You are the co-creator Your power so pure and true If you only would realize What you truly could produce

Your life would be pure magic Your desires granted free To bridge the world of wisdom And fantasy freely

Breathe and know that You Are Light!
