Daniel Schotsburg ~ Master Musician

I had the pleasure of meeting and working energetically with Daniel Schotsburg in June of 2013. When I first heard his music, I knew his compositions enhanced ones ability to connect with higher realms of consciousness. From that moment on, I knew our meeting was destined.

This collaboration is Spirit directed and it is our utmost heartfelt desire to be of service to humanity.

Daniel has graciously offered a special package for the full versions of the music you have experienced during the Merging Personal & Divine Will 13 Day Journey series.
