Health Services in Your Community

Where Do I Go For Health Care?

Family Doctor

In most cases, your doctor is the first person you should see if you have questions or concerns about your health.

Emergency

For serious illnesses or injuries, 24 hour emergency care is provided at:

- Grey Nuns Community Hospital & Health Centre, 34 Ave. & 66 St., Edmonton
- Leduc Community Hospital & Health Centre, 4210 - 48 St., Leduc
- Misericordia Community Hospital & Health Centre, 16940-87 Ave., Edmonton
- Royal Alexandra Hospital, 10240 Kingsway Ave., Edmonton
- Sturgeon Community Hospital & Health Centre, 201 Boudreau Road, St. Albert
- University of Alberta Hospital, 8440-112 St., Edmonton

Community Health/Public Health

Services such as pre and post natal care, well child services, immunization, communicable disease follow-up, health and nuisance complaint investigations and facility inspections are available at Public Health Centres in Edmonton, St. Albert, Strathcona County and Leduc County.

Home Care

Services such as nursing, homemaking and personal care are available through Home Care to people of all ages who need help to manage at home.

Continuing Care

Adults with disabilities or illnesses who cannot live independently can benefit from continuing care. Services include day programs, respite, continuing care centres and personal care homes.

Rehabilitation

The Community Rehabilitation Program provides ambulatory rehabilitation services (such as physical therapy) throughout the Region. More comprehensive rehabilitation requires a doctor's referral to the Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital.

Mental Health

Assessment and treatment for those with mental health problems is available through Mental Health Services. A broad range of services for people of all ages is offered throughout the Region

Community Services

There are other health services provided by organizations in your community. You can receive these services directly or by referral through another health provider. Some examples are:

- social and family services
- counselling
- dental health
- pharmacy

For details on any of the above services, please call:
