ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS:—

- Where is there a more obvious place for a prospective customer to look for something which he desires to purchase, or a service he wishes to use, but doesn't know where to obtain it, than the ## Classified Section of a Telephone Directory?

- Where is there any other publication covering the field in the same way, in a form which is kept from day to day for the full life of the issue, and which if destroyed is replaced?
- Where by any other method can the field of business be covered at such low cost?
- The Telephone Directory is a publication unique in itself, and your advertisement cannot be lost during the life of an issue.
- Telephone subscribers represent purchasing ability — when a home has a telephone it also has money to spend. So there is no waste circulation; everywhere a Directory is placed there are prospective customers.

GIVE A PINT OF BLOOD TO SAVE A LIFE!

- You're horrified when you read the casualty lists. You wish this war was over. Just wishing isn't going to help . . . .
- Maybe you're looking for some big job to do that really seems to "count". Things like giving a pint of blood may seem of some consequence to you, but not terribly important.
- Let some fellow who's come close to dying tell you how important it is. He'd thank you for saving his life. Thank you? It's just a war job you should be doing. Phone the Blood Donor Clinic to-day and tackle the job that is yours to do by registering!
