

Travis McFarland
Assistant Manager, Property Operations

Travis McFarland serves as Assistant Manager at Midway's mixed-use development at Century Square in College Station. He provides day-to-day support services for general property management operations and tenant relations.

Prior to joining Midway Travis started his career in the financial services industry before transitioning into commercial real estate. He worked at a small family office based out of The Woodlands, helping to grow their small portfolio of properties.

Travis holds a Bachelor of Finance degree from Texas A&M University. He currently volunteers with the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo, is Captain of the Aggie Cycling Team, and is an Eagle Scout.

"Perfection is not attainable, but if we chase perfection we can catch excellence."
