1. Have you considered your preparation of short-termers as a form of discipleship?
2. Are there ways you could have your short-termers interact with other cultures before going overseas? If not, what can you do to change this?
3. As you think about past trips your church or organization has sent out can you identify ways you could have "submitted" to local leadership as an act of service to them?
4. Do you have a plan for short-termer discipleship pre-trip, during the trip, and post-trip?
5. Are these keys part of your Short Term Mission Discipleship: (What can you do to improve each or add to your training?)
 1. Modeling Humility
 2. Teach your group to stop, to listen, to watch and to serve
 3. Demonstrating submission to local leaders
 4. Emphasizing relationships over accomplishments
