

2. That no less than three copies of said Plumbing Code of the State of Idaho have been and now are filed in the office of the Clerk of the City of Rexburg, and the same are hereby adopted and incorporated as fully as if set out at length herein, and from the date on which this ordinance shall take effect, the provisions thereof shall be controlling within the limits of the City of Rexburg, Idaho.

SECTION IV.

1. Certificate of Prerequisite.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm copartnership, association or corporation to engage in the business trade, practice or work of plumbing in the City of Rexburg after the adoption of this Ordinance, unless such person, or responsible person representing such firm, copartnership, association or corporation, has successfully passed an examination as provided by the Plumbing Law of the State of Idaho and has issued to him a State certificate of competency, which shall not be transferrable.

2. Classification of Competency.

(a) There shall be three classifications of competency in the business trade, practice or work of plumbing as follows:

(a) A plumbing contractor shall be any person, or a member, representative or agent of a firm, copartnership, association or corporation skilled in the planning and supervision of the construction, installation, improvement, extension and alteration of plumbing systems, and who is familiar with the provisions of this Ordinance, the State Plumbing Code and the Plumbing Laws of the State of Idaho, and the rules and regulations made by the Commissioner of Law Enforcement and who is competent to offer and to assume to work on a contract basis and to direct the work of qualified employees. A contractor who in person does plumbing work shall also be qualified as a journeyman plumber, or have in his employ on all work a qualified journeyman.

(b) A plumbing journeyman shall be any person, who as his principal occupation, is engaged in the installation, improvement, extension and alteration of plumbing systems, and who is familiar with the provisions of this Ordinance, the State Plumbing Code, the Plumbing Laws of the State of Idaho and the Rules and Regulations of the Commissioner of Law Enforcement, and who works in the employ and under the direction of a plumbing contractor.

(c) A plumbing apprentice shall be any person, who as his principal occupation is engaged in learning and assisting in the installation, improvement, extension and alteration of plumbing systems. Apprentices shall not perform plumbing work except under the supervision of a journeyman.

SECTION V.

The invalidity of any section or provision of this ordinance OR OF THE CODE HEREBY ADOPTED SHALL NOT invalidate other sections or provisions thereof.

SECTION VI.

Ordinances or parts of ordinances in force at the time of this ordinance shall take effect and inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

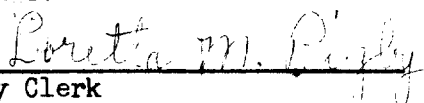

SECTION VII.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication as required by law.

Passed and Approved this 18th day of December, 1957.
