1. This pull out Pocket Card is made using the Bee Mine Designer Series Paper and the Bee My Valentine stamp set. With the sentiments from the Hooray For Surprises stamp set.
2. The card base is 4 1/4 X 5 1/2 Daffodil Delight. The layer is Pool Party that is 4 X 5 1/4. With the Basic White being 3 3/4 X 5.
3. The DSP pieces are one piece showing both sides. The DSP is 3 3/4 X 3 and is cut from the top left corner to the bottom right. Neither side is really directional so you can choose which one you want on either side.
4. The DSP is added by adhering Tear & Tape to the outer edges right at the edge. DO NOT add adhesive to the long diagonal cut. And it helps to have your insert card layers to slide into place when adhering the DSP. This allows a touch of extra space for sliding in and out.
5. The inner pull out card is a base of Daffodil Delight that is 2 3/4 X 4. With the White being 2 1/2 X 3 3/4. The inner card is designed to hide the base card sentiment when in place.
6. After stamping the pull out card sentiment, adhere the layers. Then punch the slot for the ribbon using the Very Best Trio Punch.
7. The bee is created on a scrap of paper. There are individual stamps for the antenna and wings. You will need two sets of wings. The bee is created with two stamps as well, plus your choice of facial expressions.
8. Place Stampin' Dimensionals on the center and wings of the bee. Then slide the inner card into the slot to the desired position. Then adhere the bee in place. Be careful to not attach it to the DSP pieces.
